

nd added, that
consequence of
chiefs that were
whom were Tu-
hat they would
rters were prof fear or discon-
narines should Hicks was dif-
ahah on board
mission without
n, Capt. Cook
, whom he had
rt; he therefore
, which greatly
es, who testified
loods of tears.
ers to the ship;
h some Indians,
e to detain. In rought hack by
t the other and
them, would be
ed. Upon this
the long boat,
he prisoners; at
hah, that it was
some of his peo-
t the men should
be expected to
mediately com-
without any op-

orning, they re-
been taken from
these, however,
board were al-
been detained on mining the de-
d told the truth,
hom they would
s time the power
hen the Dolphin
whose name has
ge, had been her
et priest, confe-
sion of the coun-
on, and was tho-
er, situation, and
This chief had
when we conti-

on board, with servant, named
n on board, to let
e would be useful
mously agreed to
n went on shore
friends, to whom
okens of remem-

illing to obtain a
ahah had in his
ccompanied him
th Dr. Solander.
ired to Tootahah's
orea and several
nding prevailed.
promised to visit
they were told the

came very early
nded with a vast
s of the lower fort.
hed anchor; and
nderstandings be-
the latter, who
re and much fen-
in an affectionate
d himself through this