

nearly the whole supply will in future be drawn from Canada.

In regard to Nova Scotia, the importations by the last returns which have been published in that Province, namely, for the year ending 30th September, 1865, show the following result:—

From Canada	-	-	-	58,233	bbls.
New Brunswick	-	-	-	10,482	"
Prince Edward Island	-	-	-	372	"
Newfoundland	-	-	-	658	"
United States	-	-	-	312,371	"
Great Britain	-	-	-	118	"
Other places	-	-	-	67	"

Of the importations from Canada the largest amounts have been to Halifax and Pictou, the quantities having been respectively—

To Halifax	-	-	-	27,018
" Pictou	-	-	-	25,479

From New Brunswick, the importations into Nova Scotia have been principally along the shore of the Bay of Fundy. From the United States, the importations have been, to a very large extent, into the Port of Halifax,—they having amounted to 172,192 bbls.

The next largest place of importation is Yarmouth, into which place the importations were 19,714 barrels.

The next largest are Cornwallis and Windsor, they each having imported 9000 bbls.