

ing of a jury on its being shewn upon affidavit that they had awarded compensation on a claim as to which they had no jurisdiction; but in my humble judgment it only requires to read the case attentively to perceive that it is decided upon reasons not applicable to this.

I refer also to Martin v. Kergan, (2 P. R. 373,) In re Bluck and Boyes, (22 L. J. C. B. 173,) Knight v. Burton, (6 Mod. 231,) Dy. 183, in margin.

Rule, absolute.—Draper, C. J., dissenting.

---