

8 Membership Fee $1 per year in advance. Pro rata 3 mos. or more. Each additional member in same family 50 cts per year.

9. A "want book" shall be kept by the Librarian, in which members are requested to enter the names of books they would like to have added to the Lib. If they are approved by the Book Committee they will be purchased.

10. Each member shall be entitled to one copy of catalogue on payment of 10c.

11. No person shall continuously monopolize a daily or weekly newspaper for a longer period than fifteen minutes.

12. Books are not to be exchanged but must be returned to Librarian. A member desiring to secure a book on return from another must deposit a card with his name to Librarian. No book kept longer than 24 hours.

13. Books of reference may not be taken from the library.

14. No books or papers of immoral character shall be allowed to be brought to the Reading room.

15. The Annual meeting of the Library for election of officers and general business is held on the evening of the second Monday in January in each year. Every full year member is entitled to be present and to vote on all questions.

16. The privilege of purchasing second hand magazines at half price is granted only to full yearly subscribers.

17. The Rules and Regulations are subject to amendment.