CONTINENTALISM IS DEAD ELECTORS DUG ITS GRAVE

Laurier Government Utterly Routed—Borden Has Majority of 43—Both Fielding and Paterson Caught in the Landslide—Liberal Expectations in West Shattered.

EIGHT MINISTERS HAVE GONE DOWN TO DEFEAT

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his government were overwhelmingly defeated in yesterday's elections.

According to The World's summary at an early hour this morning Mr. Borden will have a majority of 43 on the elections already held. This includes the Nationalists of Quebec, but without them he will have a working majority.

There are four elections still to be held, every one of which will undoubtedly favor the Conservatives; so that Mr. Borden's majority will be in the neighborhood of 50.

In the last house Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a majority of 44, without the speaker.

The landslide was chiefly confined to Ontario, the every province contributed something towards the final result, except Manitoba and Alberta, which stand exactly as they were.

Only Fourteen Ontario Liberals.

In Ontario there were only 14 Liberals who came thru safely, the rest were defeated. Smyth, in East Algoma, was reported late as having gone down, the possibly the mining district may pull him thru. There were 20 Conservative gains in Ontario and 5 Liberal gains.

Quebec did not split even, as some of the ardent Conservatives expected, but it did very well. Twenty-four oppositionists are elected, which will be increased when the final returns from Gaspe and Chicoutimi are in.

Eight Ministers Defeated.

Eight of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's ministers are defeated, and but four of them survived the battle of the ballots. Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was elected in two constituencies, Quebec East and Soulanges, but Hon. G. P. Graham, Hon. Mackenzie King, Hon. William Paterson, Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. William Templeman and Hon. Jacques Bureau were unable to hold up their end. Hon. Dr. Beland, the new minister, was also defeated in Montagny, although he was elected in Beauceau.

The defeat of Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. William Paterson was particularly gratifying to the crowds in the streets last night, since they were responsible for the inglorious pact, when they learned of the drubbing Mackenzie King got in North Water-look and Sir Frederick Borden in Shelburne and Queens.

The World includes W. M. German of Welland in the Liberal column, since reciprocity has been disposed of by the electorate, and it will not be heard of in parliament. Mr. German was elected as an anti-reciprocity Liberal, and is now free to support his own leaders.

Gains in the West.

The Liberals will not get much satisfaction out of the result. Even in Saskatchewan, for which the pact was particularly framed, the Conservatives made two net gains.

The defeat of McGrath in Medicine Hat is particularly to be regretted, but in all probability a seat will be found for him. He was one of Mr. Borden's best men from the west and it was expected that he would win handsily. The Conservatives, however, pulled thru John Herron in McLeod, where it was thought that he would be overcome.

British Columbia still incomplete, the figures not being in from Comox-Atlin, where Clements is expected to beat Duncan Ross.

Every Conservative member of the Ontario Legislature who resigned to go into the fight was elected. One Liberal M.L.A., Truax, is among the fallen Liberals.

One of the big turnovers was Norfolk. Hon. W. A. Charlton winning over Alex. McCall, who had 42 majority in 1908. It was admitted that the riding was in danger, but the Conservatives believed they would pull thru. In Liberal strongholds like Ottawa,

Some Opinions

J. W. FLAVELLE: "I recognize in the result of the voting the good judgment and sense of the Canadian people. It was not the movement of one man or ten men, but of the whole country."

HUGH BLAIN: "I consider this a great national victory. Canada remains her position in the front rank as a member of the British Empire."

J. C. EATON: "It's Canada for Canadians. The farmers and the consumers won't find that deals without reciprocity will be half as bad as it has been painted. It won't be bad for anybody. The Canadian people have shown that their hearts are in the right places."

J. G. KENT: "You know what Roosevelt said? De-lighted! I was never so pleased in my life. 'I think we will see a boom the like of which Canada has never seen before. I think that British capital will flow into the country like water.'"

CONSTERNATION AMONG WALL-STREET TRADERS

One Prominent Banker Advised Selling All American and Buying Canadian Stocks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(Special.) As the wires flashed the news "The Laurier government has been snuffed out," to-night, consternation prevailed among an element of Wall-street men that had been trading on the hopes that reciprocity would prevail. Millions of dollars have been staked and millions have been lost.

The Hill lines and the Grangers would have boomed because of a greater volume of Canadian business, and the longs would have profited largely. These stocks have been accumulated for the past year and have risen materially in value. Things will look different at the opening of the stock exchange to-morrow.

Significant Advice.

At a late hour to-night there was much cabling of orders to London, some seeking to catch the market before full returns had reached England. All of the prominent clubs and hotels posted bulletin returns of the election to-night, and much interest was displayed. When the defeat of Laurier was announced, one prominent Wall-street banker and broker at once sent out hundreds of telegrams advising the selling of all American stocks and the purchase of Canadian issues.

At the Canadian Club, there was little enthusiasm shown in the returns after it had been announced that the Laurier government had met defeat. Most of those present were advocates of reciprocity and they felt keenly its defeat. "For," as one said, "Canada has made a mistake. She could not look beyond the annexation bogey. They could not be made to understand the Americans did not wish to subjugate the country. The people's verdict

BURNT OUT

The Seniority of the New House

The election of yesterday made a sweeping change in the seniority of the house, probably more sweeping than in any previous election. Of the senior nine members of the house only one Liberal is left, and that is Sir Wilfrid; all the others are from Ontario, and are Conservatives.

Out of the seniors there disappeared yesterday, Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. Mr. Paterson and Hon. Mr. Fisher (albeit Mr. Fisher was out for three or four years). There are only eight or nine members now left in the house who have an unbroken or nearly unbroken connection with the house before or since 1891, and the order of seniority runs about as follows:

1. Hon. John Haggart, first elected 1872 (unbroken)
2. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, first elected 1874 (unbroken)
3. Dr. Sprague (Grey), first elected 1878 (unbroken)
4. Geo. Taylor (Leeds), first elected 1882 (unbroken)
5. Hon. G. E. Foster, first elected 1882 (broken)
6. David Henderson (Halton), first elected 1888 (broken)
7. Dr. Reid (Grenville), first elected 1891 (unbroken)
8. Colonel Hughes, first elected 1892 (unbroken)
9. W. F. Maclean, first elected 1892 (unbroken)

And then comes a very considerable gap. Mr. W. H. Bennett is probably the next in the order of seniority, but he was out of the late parliament. Mr. R. L. Borden came in in 1896. Mr. Osler of Toronto was also first elected in 1896.

GIVE THESE MEN THEIR DUE.

And to whom shall we give credit for the magnificent victory of yesterday?

First of all to the people of Canada. Next to the united and devoted party, under the able and devoted leadership of Mr. R. L. Borden.

Next to Sir James Whitney and his colleagues under the leadership of Hon. Frank Cochrane.

And then you come to individuals. To the Hon. Clifford Sifton as much as to any one.

Next, come the thousands and thousands of Liberals, headed by the Noble Eleventh of the City of Toronto and the Province of Ontario. Then the

ATTEMPT TO SET EAST AGAINST WEST FAILURE

HALIFAX, Sept. 21.—Out of eighteen seats in Nova Scotia, it looks at a late hour to-night as if the Conservatives had divided the province equally. They have returned nine candidates, while the Liberals have the same number, including Richmond, which may be in doubt, but the chances there favor the Liberals. For a long time the election of R. L. Borden in Halifax was in doubt, but at 10 o'clock a bulletin was issued from the Conservative headquarters announcing the return of R. L. Borden, Conservative, and E. Blackadder, Liberal, the former by a majority of over 100.

The outstanding feature of the election is the defeat of Hon. W. S. Fielding in Shelburne-Queens, by F. B. McCurdy, a successful banker and broker of Halifax, and who is largely interested in paper mills in that riding. This is Mr. Fielding's first defeat in 20 years of public life. His friends looked on this contest as the fight of his life, but they thought he would pull thru. The result shows his defeat by 123. Another sensation of the election is the defeat of Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia, in Kings, who goes down against a majority of 223 for his opponent, A. Dew Foster, an undergraduate of Acadia College, who has a year more to put in before his graduation in arts can take place. Foster's father is a cousin of Hon. George E. Foster, ex-minister of finance. Several of the fishing counties voted against reciprocity, Lunenburg, Digby, and Shelburne-Queens having returned opposition candidates. On the other hand, mining counties of Pictou and Cape Breton have elected government candidates, in spite of the proposal to reduce the coal duty by eight cents a ton.

The excitement in the town to-night was intense, the crowds around the Conservative headquarters evincing the most borden on their shoulders from the headquarters to a carriage, which he took to the arena, where he addressed a big crowd.

Prince Edward Island returns three Conservatives to one Liberal, just reversing the standing of parties in the last parliament. This was effected by the Conservatives capturing Queens County.

TORONTO'S VOICE WAS STRONGLY ANTI-PACT

Great Demonstration in Streets as Returns From All Over Canada Showed Strength of National Spirit—Local Majorities Staggered Even Conservatives.

Toronto was simply delirious with delight last night. It was like the night when the Ross government fell, only more so. A quarter of a million people thronged the downtown streets, watched the bulletin boards and cheered excitedly every time a Conservative gain was flashed upon the screens.

After doing their part in rolling up huge majorities of thousands against reciprocity and Laurierism, the citizens hurried down town to see how the country was going, the weather having cleared in agreeable fashion. The returns amazed even the most hopeful of this stronghold of Conservatism. As early as 6 o'clock the first provincial result was known, and by dark the returns were rolling in. One Conservative gain followed another, and from Yonke, King and Richmond streets arose an almost constant cheer. Bands played, the crowds yelled and everybody was joyful, excepting the little battalion of the last guard that stood, tearfully, watching from in front of the Liberal organ's office the results of the most historic day in all Canada's eventful history.

The first returns came from the city constituencies, and they were closely followed by those from the maritime provinces. They were all so overwhelmingly Conservative as to almost evoke doubt. But so closely were they followed by even more unexpected returns that the crowds absolutely forgot themselves in their exultation. The few old guard Liberals were thunderstruck. They had expected to see a reduction in Laurier's majority, but they were hardly prepared for what

ARTHUR HAWKES BIG FACTOR.

Arthur Hawkes the man who created the phrase, "British-born," was placed last night with the showing in Ontario. He had done much speaking during the campaign and in looking over the list discovered that wherever he had spoken, lo, the anti-reciprocity candidate had won, or increased his majority.

Undressed Felt Hats Are Fashionable. In discussing the trend of fashions throughout the world a great English journal calls attention to the almost universal adoption by gentlemen of the undress or felt Alpine or Fedora hat for general utility wear. Of course the silk hat is the only one for functions or dress occasions. The soft felt, black Derby, with the low crown and wide brim, however, has a very large call in Europe. King George himself has lately adopted this particular block. The Dineen Company, which is sole Canadian agents for Henry Heath of London and Dunlop of New York, besides being distributing agents for most of the great English makers, is showing some splendid blocks in these new Derbys and in the undress felt Alpines. Particular attention is called to the unusually large display in the last named lines.
