EUROPEAN ROYALTIES WHO NEED TO REDUCE THEIR WEIGHT WILL LEARN SECRETS OF PRETTY AMERICAN GIRLS

Marjorie Hamilton, the famous "Calendar Girl," is planning a trip to Europe in answer to the request of the big capitalists to undertake her treatment for fat reduction. Her success in the United States, American women abroad have scattered her fame far and wide and there has been so great an interest in her "Fat Vanishes a Pound a Day" treatment that it is claimed by her friends that among her prospective customers are several men and women of royal rank who find their avoirdupois is gaining on them faster than the old-fashioned remedies can keep it down.

There are several royalties who would welcome a visit from this little slip of a girl who has discovered in treating for adipose has made her so well known. Queen Wilhelmina is said to be growing quite portly and she bitterly resents the rotundity that robs her of her girlish charm. Queen Amelle of Portugal, one of the most beautiful women in Europe, but her throne, which has gained a lot of very solid flesh, since the rebellion robbed her of the responsibility of managing her young kingdom. The Empress of Germany is another one who would be glad to lose a round number of her surplus pounds and even Queen Mary of England, in spite of her regal living and athletic tendencies, is finding an appreciable weight gain.

Then there are innumerable men of royal lineage who could shed a score or more pounds. It has been broadly hinted to Miss Hamilton that if she can tear herself away from her duties at the Bank Building of Denver, long enough to cross the Atlantic she will find plenty of customers among the elect who will be glad to put themselves in her hands. Of course, if she is willing to take a hint which is given out, she will not lack for royal customers who are anxious to try the efficacy of the "American girl," as one titled Englishman styled Miss Hamilton when he was introduced to her recently.

The Daily Hint From Paris

Correct Tailored Suit.
The new lines with perhaps a little more femininity in the skirt. The innovations consist of oddly placed seams and the use of large buttons of pearl or crystal. The material of the suit sketched in blue serge with a white stripe. The front is fitted by curved seams which join the yoke effect and the lower part of the jacket. The seams in the skirt are placed at a new angle and the flounce is slightly curved.

The buttons used are the dish shaped crystal, the centre of each being filled with a mould covered with green silk. This silk is also used to make the button loops.

H. C. Proctor. Tickets may be had from patronesses and Miss Freda Davidson, secretary, 22 Madison-avenue.

SONG RECITAL BY THE PUPILS OF MR. ARTHUR BLIGHT.

On Saturday evening a quartet of Mr. Arthur Blight (soprano), Miss Eleanor Wright (contralto) and Messrs. Albert Downing (tenor) and Warren L. Walker (baritone)—were heard in a song recital at the home of Mrs. A. H. C. Proctor, a miscellaneous of ballad numbers at the Margaret Eaton Hall. The quartet, both of voice and piano, and harmonic qualities, and it is informed with a good deal of music of a considerably higher class than is usually associated with such media. The excellent quality, both of tone and expression, it was, however, in the song recital, that the quartet made their mark. The four voices blended to give the full effect of the music, and the quartet, in any respect, was indeed, a sympathetic four. There were, indeed, five—Miss Vera Hagerman—who took part in the quartet, played a very charming, melodious accompaniment. The twenty-one numbers in the "cycle" were given without a hitch in any part, and they constituted a very charming, melodious accompaniment. Miss Hazel Adelaide Fegan, a pupil of Miss Vera Hagerman, played a very charming solo, played them remarkably well—especially the last, Mozzi's "Die Feinsinger" (Wagner), as he had all his music in the concert part of the program, in pleasing and finished style, and not resembling, one is a Hindoo to record, the music of the Hindoos in any respect, or degree, for which she received much applause, and as did each of the ladies after her contribution to the program, many flowers. Miss Helen Murray sang a very beautiful song—"Oh, Love, But a Day," by Mrs. H. A. Beach, which was clearly much appreciated by her hearers, and Mr. Warren L. Walker closed the program with a good, virile rendering of Wagner's "Two Wanderers." It was a very pleasant evening's music, and equal credit may fairly be given to the singers, their instructor, and the two ladies who were at the piano.

If This Is Your Birthday
Please acquaintances and good fortune generally will be yours, but unless you act with good judgment and discretion you may lose both. Those born on this day will have ability. They will advance and be successful, but will do well to sometimes curb their own desires and act according to friend's advice.
