BOTH CANDIDATES
OUTLINE POLICIES

Hon. Dr. Cody and William Varley Are Those Nominated.

The fight is on in Northeast Toronto. The Labor party has nominated William Varley, whose occupation is given as secretary, to oppose Dr. Henry John Cody, minister of education.

The hall at the corner of Cumberland and Yonge streets was fairly well filled with friends of both candidates when Gordon Shaver, deputy returning officer, announced at 2 o'clock sharp that the two names before him as candidates for the coming by-election were those of Dr. Cody and Mr. Varley.

Mr. Shaver pointed out to Mr. Varley that the occupation of some of those who had signed his petition was not indicated, but added that Norman Gash, K.C., Dr. Cody's agent, had used the did not intend taking any advantage of the oversight, and he, the deputy returning officer, would be able to issue Mr. Varley a final certificate.

Mr. Gash then moved that Dr. Cody speak first for fifteen minutes, to be followed by Mr. Varley for the same length of time, and that Dr. Cody be given an extra five minutes to reply. This was objected to by Mr. Varley, and it was finally decided to allow each candidate fifteen minutes and five minutes reply.

After expressing his thanks to both Conservatives and Liberals who had supported his candidature, Dr. Cody said there was a general feeling all over the country that there should be no elections during war time, but that all energies should bend towards one sole aim, the winning of the war. The onus of the election was, however, not upon the government, as it had been brought on thru the retirement of Dr. Pyne.

Dr. Cody stated the labor interests had found their best friend in the Ontario Government. The govern- ment had prepared an exhaustive report on the unemployment question, which would be thoroughly dealt with. Workmen's compensation, the returned soldiers' aid, and other similar im- portant matters were being taken care of by the government.

He was giving all his thought and energies to the great question of education in this province, and he assured his hearers there would be no failure on his part to give the work of his department the whole of his time. He ad- made provisions for the taking- over of his parochial work and would charge all his duties of minister education according to the oath of- fice he had taken when appointed.

What was most needed was tech- nical industrial and commercial edu- cation to make of the Canadian work- man and woman the very best in the world. The boy and girl must be given a chance of continuing their education after they had completed their preliminary studies in the pub- lic schools.

Dr. Cody concluded with a strong appeal to all classes to give the govern- ment their support in the vital work of education.

Mr. Varley said he was again con- fronted with the same old situation. He was again told he was in the wrong place at the wrong time, but, however, considered that it was in the right place and at the right time on this as on other occasions.

The Labor party was not respon- sible for the present fight for seat A in Northeast Toronto. It was simply due to the removal of Dr. Pyne. The Labor party, said Mr. Varley, had no intention of making any attack upon Dr. Cody during this campaign on account of his having been a member of any particular clerical body. The fight would be a clean one and personalities would be carefully avoided.

Rightly Abrogated.

The Labor party in this fight took the stand that the government had abrogated the rights of the people and used them to its own advantage.

The old cry that all energies must be exerted towards one sole thing, the winning of the war, was in no way set aside by the Labor party who would do nothing that might hinder the great cause in any way or fashion. One of the principal aims of the Labor party in this, as in all other fights, must be to see that post-war measures were properly con- sidered and attended to by the govern- ment.

As to the treatment of returned sol- diers, Mr. Varley, who stated he was a returned soldier himself and had in his pocket an honorable discharge on the back of which it was stated he was physically unfit, believed there should be legislation to protect the returned men from being exploited by the employers who would offer a man any wage because he found he was considered "physically unfit." It should be provided thru legislation that returned men be paid a fixed minimum wage.

"WHY DO PLUMBERS WASTE SO MUCH TIME?"

That is the question that has been asked times without number. That is what set SHANNON thinking. Thinking out a plan to SAVE TIME. It came in the SHANNON MOTOR CAR SERVICE. Shannon saw the weak spots in the old system. He saw that the system was all wrong. Hours of time wasted in coming and going for tools. Now Shannon cars carry every necessary tool and material for any job—big or small. And these Shannon cars cover the city.

The proceedings concluded with three cheers for the candidates, the King and the returned soldiers, and a vote of thanks to the deputy re- turning officer, Gordon Shaver.

CLOSES LAST CHAPTER

The report of J. A. C. Cameron, re- ferred to in the liquidation of the York County Loan, has been confirmed by Justice Rose, and the books will be destroyed under a judicial order. The York Loan went into liquidation in 1905, and the last dividend has just been paid after 13 years. The report of Mr. Cameron places the total receipts from the sale of the assets of the company at $2,371,056, and of this amount $1,660,739.12 goes to the shareholders. The sum of $660,410.12, expended otherwise than in dividends, has covered the cost of liquidation. A balance of $38,891.25, shareholders' cheques, have not been cashed, will be paid into court.

JUDGMENT IS RESERVED.

Murphy, 2, Toronto, who was asking for an accounting of the commission due to him from the National Manufactur- ing Company, Limited, of Ottawa on leases made by him for the com- pany in Toronto. The company claimed that Murphy should only have charged eight per cent. dis- count on the leases and a matter- of-fact he had been over-paid.

JOHN GALBRAITH
OPPOSES MINISTER

Nominated for Seat in Legis- lature Against Hon. George S. Henry.

FEW ELECTORS PRESENT

Government's Nickel Policy
Attacked by New Aspir- ant for Honors.

Hon. Geo. S. Henry, minister of agriculture, and John Galbraith, of Tadmorden, a patent medicine man- ufacturer, were nominated yester- day afternoon at Snell's Hall, Main street, East Toronto, for the riding of East York for the provincial house. Mr. Henry's nomination papers were signed by 123 electors and Mr. Gal- braith, independent candidate, had 118 signatures to his papers. The attendance was small.

The feature of the meeting was a passage-at-arms between Hon. Geo. S. Henry and his opponent, Mr. Gal- braith had criticized the action of the government in regard to the nickel industry in Ontario. The royal nickel commission appointed to in- quire into the operations of the com- panies regarding this industry in Ontario, he said, had sent in its re- port, but the government had never acted upon that report.

"I object to that statement," said Mr. Henry. "The act governing this industry, passed after the commis- sion had handed in its report, is al- ready on the statute books."

"Oh, that is indeed remarkable," fired back the independent candidate. "The report of the commission was handed in to the government at the close of the 1917 session. How, then, could an act have been passed in accordance with its findings?"

"That commission gave in its re- port in March, 1917, and the act af- fecting the nickel industry was passed soon after," replied the minister of agriculture.

Strong on English Only.

Mr. Galbraith stated that his plat- form comprised the abolition of French at the public and separate schools of the province, and on this point he was emphatic. He would also abolish the study of German at any school or college in the province, not excluding the university. The prob- lem of taxation on the basis of land values, he believed, should be set- tled by a referendum vote.

There was no doubt, said the speak- er, that the French language was be- coming a strong factor in Ontario. "Last Saturday," he said, "I went up to the office of the minister of edu- cation to find out if bilingual read- ers were still used in the schools. They refused to give out any infor- mation. Inspection of the schools as the I intended to blow up the house. I asked Hon. Dr. Cody for the information I desired. He told me that he was not prepared to give it to me, and referred me to his deputy. The same result. Now, the public are paying out $25,442 for teaching of French in the schools, and yet they refuse us access to their books. As matters stand the French children are expected to study two languages while the Canadian is learning his own. When the Greek or the Hungarian comes into Ontario does he expect to be taught to study two languages? No."

The Nickel Question.

Captain Keene of Scarborough, the chairman of the meeting, was an- other who engaged in a passage-at- arms over the nickel industry. One of the members of the audience, G. Turner, had contradicted his state- ment that all the nickel in the world was by no means found in Ontario, and that much of it came from New Caledonia. The captain pointed out that as he had traveled not only thru Ontario, but also Australia, he knew where it was. When Mr. Turner reminded him that it was at the world's fair at San Francisco he had gathered the information that On- tario supplied 50 per cent. of the nickel of the world, the captain told him not to believe all he heard or read.

Geo. S. Henry, in reply to the in- dependent candidate, stated that the government had provided for the study of English at every school in the province. As to the problem of taxation, said the speaker, Mr. Gal- braith well knew that a committee had been formed at Queen's Park which would convene in October or November this year to deal with just such taxation problems as he had considered in his address. If Mr. Galbraith desired to hold meetings every night he would be glad to hold them, but he would certainly not meet him on the matter any further irresponsible statements such as he made in connection with the nickel industry.

Fred Baker and Thomas Foster, M.P., addressed the gathering, the former regretting the need of an elec- tion campaign, and Mr. Foster con- gratulating the government upon its choice of the Hon. Dr. Cody and Hon. Geo. S. Henry for their respective posts in the cabinet.
