

WOODBINE HORSES WORK OUT TODAY

Trainers Rest on Friday—
Looking Over the Candidates From Waterloo.

Yesterday was an off-day at the Woodbine, practically all the trainers holding out for this morning, when a record attendance of railbirds is expected to see all the horses at the track at work. What few gathered at the track Friday, did so for the express purpose of seeing the Seagram dozen take opening exercise.

The Waterloo horses, in charge of trainer W. H. Bringle, are in grand form, having wintered well to all appearances. The seven contenders that have been trained on Canadian and American tracks, the five-year-old bay mare, Belle Mahone, by Ypsilanti-Irish Lass; Gala Dress, 5, by Galatine Court Maid; and Gala Water, 6, by Galatine-Sea Wall.

Belle Mahone has developed into a beautiful big mare of a breezy type, but well constructed throat. Race persons will readily recall her splendid victories in the King's Plate as a three-year-old, also the Maple Leaf stakes. Her legs are beyond criticism. Gala Water is the biggest horse at the track, standing a plump 16.3, and will be remembered as having won the Stanley Produce stakes three years ago. All last season he performed such mental labor as plowing, and as third horse on the binder, harvested over fifty acres of grain. The work seems to have improved him underpinning, for, although slightly knee-sprung, he now stands quite firm and is training in a satisfactory manner. He is quoted as the purest galloped horse of his proportions in training. Speaking of his breeding, a prominent trainer regretted the fact that Gala Water was gelded, as thru his dam, Sea Wall, a good race mare, he traces to Asyline and St. Surt, the best racing families in England.

The other aged one Gala Dress, a big sturdy constructed mare of a rich chestnut hue, has been a consistent performer for the past two years, and as a three-year-old ran third to Belle Mahone in the Plate.

The Platers look like the goods, and all being three-year-olds will have the weight advantage. The stable help look on Hong Kong and Doleful as the most promising colts ever trained at the Waterloo establishment. Hong Kong is a thick-made colt by Havoc (one of the last colts got by that good sire), and out of Royal China, one of the best matrons in Canada. The colt was quite unsettled in his new quarters, and fretted during the few moments we visited his stall. However, he is of the bulldog type, and one can almost imagine him putting up a valiant struggle at the end of a long journey.

Doleful is a Ypsilanti, out of Doleful, and is a big, stalwart colt said to closely resemble his sire. He has had some experience, but never earned a bracket; nevertheless he must not be overlooked in the Plate.

The chestnut colt, Gaway, by Galatine-Irish Lass, is a large and heavy-boned youngster of very pleasing conformation, but it is possible he will remain in the barn on the holiday, leaving the slim and nervy-looking filly, Gallant Kitty, by Galatine-Kate Kittleberry, to make up the trio that will carry the yellow and black. ## ETERNAL FAVORITE FOR TODAY'S DERBY

Ross Stable Said to Rely on Sir Barton Rather Than Billy Kelly.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—Fourteen of the best three-year-olds on the American turf have been named to start tomorrow in the forty-fifth renewal of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. The race, at a mile and a quarter, will carry $20,000 in added money and be worth approximately $25,000, making it the richest stake of the year in the United States.

The struggle is expected to be one of the hardest ever fought in the Kentucky Derby and the indications are that the crowd, which will witness it will be of record-breaking Derby proportions. Owing to rain today, the prospects were for a slow track.

The entries, according to their post positions, weights and jockeys announced tonight follows, although additional entries may be made up to within forty-five minutes of post time:

1. Sir Barton...112...Jockey: Harry Payne Whitney's Vindex, a large eastern following. He finished his training on Thursday with a mile and a quarter trial in 2:06 1/5. The Derby record is 2:03 3/5.

Possibly most fancied among so-called "dark" horses are Be Frank, Regalo,
