made in some instances. The Ontario railway and municipal board are generously treated, the chairman getting within $1000 a year of the prime minister, while the other isters. The railway board is put down for $30,000 in all. For Education. The education department gets $5000 more, chiefly in salaries. Lands, mines and forests jumps up $26,000 to $110,600. largely due to salaries and contingencies. The union of the fineries an game departments is the chief novelty in the public works department, but there is little change in the totals of $50,150. The treasury department varies little at $31,125; and the prevented auditor's office claims $14,-The provincial secretary's de-Partment rises from $116,685 to $145.670.

Of this $2600 for a new filing system. and $3500 transferred from miscellan-eous for automobile tags and law enforcement are novelties. Inspection of public institutions takes $9500 extra for temporary assistance. The board of health gets $7000 more for practical

For Agriculture. The department of agriculture will spend $3000 more than last year with $49,726 to start with Office an ous items account for $15,650, a) $200 n-Legislation will cost $224,500; administration of justice $612,394. District judges get $4500 under the new act. The new district of Sudbury is not yet provided for Education totals $1,396 266, an 17 crease of $15,000 but the Toronto University and S. P. S. gran's are excluded from this, and the am un's thus increase from $29,168 to $895.66. Public institutions show an increase of $30,000 in a sum of $1.040,058: In agriculture the total is increased $25,000, to $485,453. The dairy depart: ment gets $3000 less, most of is saved from the Ottawa Far.

Colonization Colonization and immigration requires $46.065, an increase of $7500, $90.0 being spent in Great Britain.

Hospitals and charities r ceive $303,-664, $8000 being saved from grants for $192.854 75 consumptives.

The new normal schools are down for $200,000, half of which is a re-vote. The Ontario Agricultural College is down for $70,525. Public works include bridges and other structures, totaling $135,200, $41,-000 over 1906. For colonization roads there is provided $298,311. Charges on crown lands total $52,800. mining and development being restor-sible for the increase of $3,600 A sampling plant at $25,000 is an interesting item.

Under miscellaneous there are $18,000 for the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, $10,000, half last year's amount, for gratuities: $50,000 for the commutation of volunteer veteran land tation of volunteer veteran' land grants; $10,000 for a statue for Hon John Sandfield Macdonald; $200 for the Batoche column tablet; $200 for the South African monument, and $2000 for the Bell telephone memorial. The Surplus.

Hon. A. J. Matheson has accomplished more than he ventured to promise in producing a surplus of $129,299.32. In Effort to Remove Some.
