IT IS NOT SETTLED YET. THE NEWS ABOUT McNEILL.

(Continued from Page One) never been discussed with the officers responsible for the temporary affairs of the division upon which the men were employed. As a result, a strike was ordered by one of the officers in the United States of the telegraphers' organization.

Every telegrapher, conductor, lineman and other employee connected with reputable organizations, whose feet the demand of the telegraphers in this instance was unwarranted, in violation of common practice, and of every rule of discipline.

All of the men engaged in the present strike, paid monthly salaries were entitled to two weeks' notice of dismissal, and were required to give two weeks' notice of resignation from the company's service. They left without any other question involved as to whether the executive officers of the company shall ignore the question of the strike.

Hamilton, Oct. 1.—(Special.)—The World's "scorp" this morning about the imprisonment of William McNeill, the theological student, at Niagara Falls, for fraud, creating a sensation in this city, as McNeill was not only well known here, but was engaged to be married to one of Hamilton's society ladies, the daughter of a well-known and prosperous business man.

It is said that he was in Bermuda last year, invited him to visit in the city, and while here he was asked by Rev. Dr. Lyle to preach in Central Presbyterian Church. He preached there, and made a great impression on his congregations, his sermons all being of a touching, sympathetic nature. He was one of the speakers at the Y. M. C. A. anniversary meeting, and of the Y. M. C. A. society, his pulpit oratory was so much admired that the managers of Central Presbyterian Church invited him to occupy the pulpit during the absence of Rev. Dr. Lyle on his summer vacation.

Arrangements with McNeill were made, but he failed to fulfil his engagement, and the managers of the church were unable to locate him to correspond with him. Everybody thought this was quite strange. The swath he cut at Niagara Falls was no greater than that in this city, and he was the same long a society here as there. He was idolized by the fair society ladies, and many a symphony society ladies dropped this morning when people read of his fate.

There is serious trouble at present in two cities, N.Y., homes over the departure of a married man with another man's wife. T. Pierce, a big, powerful restaurant proprietor in that city, accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Harris, a well-known commercial traveler, registered at the St. Nicholas Hotel last Friday, where they were spending the night. The next morning, Mrs. Harris, who was in the city, was found in bed with another man, and she was reported to the police.

Mr. Pierce, who had indicated his desire in asking for it and had taken it to his home, was reported to the police. The man who was in bed with Mrs. Harris, who was reported to the police, was identified as the man who was in bed with Mrs. Harris, who was reported to the police.

REV. H. C. DIXON'S DISMISSAL. Sir Oliver Mowat Admits That the Charge Was Made in Toronto Postoffice to Help a Good Liberal.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—(Special.)—In the Senate yesterday Sir Mackenzie Bowell asked as to the truth of the report that H. C. Dixon, stamp vendor in the Toronto postoffice, had been dismissed; whether Mr. Hewitt had been appointed in his place, and if it was true that letters had been written by leading Liberals among them Mr. S. H. Blake, Q.C., protesting against the Government's action.

Sir Oliver Mowat replied that Mr. Hewitt had been appointed stamp vendor in Toronto postoffice to replace Mr. Dixon. There was no change against Mr. Dixon, but the Postmaster-General had been advised by his deputy that holders of such licenses were not regarded in any sense as permanent appointees. Mr. Hewitt was an estimable man in strained circumstances, and Mr. Dixon, though a respectable man, was in a less favorable position. It had been decided to make the change. It had been advanced that the change had been made to make way for another gentleman who was in a better position. It was simply another instance of the intention of the Government to deal with the stamp vendors in a fair and equitable manner.

Mr. Dixon expended a large amount of money in the position in public charity in the city of Toronto. A letter had been received from Mr. Dixon, in which he stated that he was in a better position. It was simply another instance of the intention of the Government to deal with the stamp vendors in a fair and equitable manner.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell could not see any valid excuse in the reply of Sir Oliver Mowat. He stated that he had been asked to justify the dismissal of an official who had faithfully discharged his duty for 18 years. The only reason advanced was that the change had been made to make way for another gentleman who was in a better position. It was simply another instance of the intention of the Government to deal with the stamp vendors in a fair and equitable manner.
