Death of Father Reddin.

The Roman Catholic Church in this city and vicinity mourns the loss of a promising young member of the priesthood. Rev. Father M. J. Reddin, vice-priest of Toronto Gore, died at his residence on Saturday, after a lingering illness. He was born 33 years ago in Pickering Township, County of Ontario, and was educated at St. Michael's College and Toronto University. He studied theology with the Sulpician Fathers in the Grand Seminary, Montreal, and was ordained priest by the Archibishop of Toronto, September, 1891. His first appointment was as assistant at St. Paul's Church, in this city, where he endeared himself to the Catholics in the East End. In September, 1895, Father Reddin was appointed pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Toronto Gore, where he worked in the priesthood until called away by death. The body will lie in St. Paul's to-night, whence it will be removed to Pickering for burial on Tuesday at 10 a.m.
