Toronto Whist Club Ladies' Night.

There will be a game for mixed pairs and also gentlemen partners at the Toronto Whist Club this evening. Souvenirs win be awarded the winning pair in each class. The Toronto Whist Club is admirably adapted for a summer evening game, as the lofty cellings and windows and electric lighting ensures a delightfully cool atmosphere. Speaking of lady whist players, it may be interesting to some to know that at the Women's Whist Congress, which was held at New York last week, no less than 650 women took part, some coming from as far West as Minneapolis.

Six tables were in play at the T.W.C. compass game on Saturday night, Messrs. Armsfrong and Higgins and Beeton and Gallagher winning the souvenirs with plus 10 and 8, respectively. Other plus scores were: Cox and Ledger 3, Amsden and Brown 1, Armstrong and Shaw, Tilley and Wallace, Johnston and Scott, and Galloway and Pearson averarge.

Next Saturday night, if an even number of pairs are present, a Mitchell compass game will be played, the winning N. and 8, and E. and W. pairs to receive the souvenirs.

Sporting Notes.

A good tip, if you intend taking in the Pan-American—Get one of Ed Mack's up to date suits; made in the latest American style. Then you won't be a back number.

Lacrosse Games Across the Line.

At Swarthmore, Pa.—Swarthmore's Iacrosse team played its annual game with the strong team from the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, winning by 3 goals to 2. At Philadelphila—By better all-around lacrosse, Harvard defeated the University of Pennsylvania by a score of 6 goals to 1. The return of Mg. Thomas to his old position at cover-point greatly strengthened the Quakers. Harvard's team work was much better.

At Brooklyn—Sharp dodging, passing and body-checking defeated the Hobart Coilege team in a game with the home contingent of the Crescent Athletic Club lacrosse team. The score was 8—3. Wall for the Crescents was a tower of strength, while for the college players Captain Coleman and Mr. Williams did some splendid stopping and passing. The game was close from start to finish and played very fast. At Baltimore—Society folk made a brilliant assemblage at the lacrosse game between Johns Hopkins and Columbia. The game was almost too one-sided to be Interesting. The visitors were outplayed at every point. Columbia's attack was fair, but the magnificent defence put up by Hopkins prevented scoring. Columbia succeeded in shooting a goal early, but after that was not a factor. The score was 7 to 1. Lacrosse Games Across the Line.
