THINKS ROSS IS HONEST

Rev. W. H. Harvey Expects Him to Go to Country on Prohibi-

Rev. W. H. Harvey, Methodist clergy man of St. Catharines, thinks Hon. G. W. Ross is honest and proves it by quoting a hymn written by the premier 25 years ago. This is the hymn:

Watchman, What of the night?
is the Day at all to come?
Long, how long we've struggled on,
Wearily we tail and pray,
Wearily we wait for day.

Tis a long, long night, and murky and drear.
But my faith is strong that the day is near. There's a gleam of light in the dusky sky,
It must be, brother, that the day is nigh.

Watchman, What of the night? Rum and ruin, hand in hand, Sweep like fiends across the land, Shall their power ever cease? When shall shine the sun of peace?

Watchman, What of the night? Need we look at all for day? Shall we cast all hope away? Shall we leave our sons to die? Is there hope in yonder sky?

Response—

It is streaming fast thru the fading

the sky.
Oh, let us rejoice, for the morn is nigh. "Any man who could express such sentiments, in my opinion, is honest," said Mr. Harvey in his sermon Sunday night, "and I believe that Premier Ross will do as he has promised. I have not lost heart, and I am firmly convinced that within a very few months Premier Ross will go to the people on a prohibition platform. I hope he will. As yet we have only a letter, but I feel certain that Mr. Ross" promises were not empty ones."

ABOUT HUMMING BIRDS.

The natural history section of the Canadian Institute met Monday night on Richmond-st., S. Dillon Mills, vice-piekident, occupying the chair. An interesting paper was read by John Maughan, jr., on humming birds, describing their habits and peculiarities. The birds are not found anywhere except on this continent, being especially numerous near the equator and decreasing in numbers as they recede to be a more serious accident happened to Mrs. A. Cronk on Saturday about 10 a.m. at her home on John-street. It appears she was in the cellar where the coal furnace is located and as the fire was not burning very well, poured some kerosene on a newspaper and threw it into the furnace, and before she had time to close the door, the flames and gas shot out, striking her on the face, hair, arms and ears, burning her severely. She had presence of mind, however, and rolled herself in some ashes and sand, putting out the fire and thus saving her life.

Drummond's Speech.

London, May 3.—The Liverpool Daily Post, commenting on last night's Liverpool Chamber of Commerce banquet, says George E. Drummond's eloquent speech was full of the earnest loyalty that pervades Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, Mr. Drummond may rest assured that, tho some Englishmen are enthusiastically in favor of Mr. Chamberlain's proposals, and others are vehemently against them, there is only one feeling in this country where Canada is concerned.

A writer in The Christian Guardian who calls himself a strong party man who calls himself a scrong party mass-suggests that the only way to over-throw the works of the devil, to wit. the liquor traffic, is to form a coalition government, and he thinks it can be done without breaking one's political
