An Invitation to Visit Simcoe on May 24 Conditionally Accepted-The Rifle Matches.

meeting of the officers of Seventh Battalion was held at the drill shed last night to discuss the project of a trip to Simcoe on May 24. It was decided to accept the invitation, provided the Simcoe authorities agree to the battallion's terms. The Simcoe people are trying to arrange a big military celebration with the aid of the local battalion and visiting corps. The officers of the Seventh say they can muster at least 150 men, and they are highly favorable to the trip. It was also decided to have the annual rifle matches, as usual, on Good Friday. J. Lorkin's ten- main line, via London. The object is der for $1 45 per day for sprinkling only was recommended by the board of works. The council yesterday referred the matter back to the committee to ask tenders for cleaning and sprinkling together. In the meantime T. J. Morkin has been ordered to de the work. This is not the proper way to treat a widow. The labor last year was performed by her son in a most satisfactory manner and the price was as low as it could be. To require it to be done cheaper would be an outrage. Mrs. Morkin's figure having been made public, it would be unfair to call for tenders again as her competitors could underbid her. There is said to be a political motive at the bottom of the matter, but the majority of the aldermen will no doubt show themselves above mistreating a widow. ** ** **

The board of health meets tomorrow night.

The discussion on the union label showed that several of the aldermen preferred the opinion of the Toronto city solicitor to that of the London city solicitor, who held that the council had the right to adopt the label. In this he agreed with the city solicitor of Ham- 2 o'clock, and continued at 2:45 in the ilton, where the label is in force. It suited the present convenience of some of the aldermen to regret the opinion of their own lawyer, though the large majority had pledged themselves to the workingmen to see that the label was adopted.

The Forbes Company, of nespeler, have wired that the cloth submitted by Galpin & James, for the firemen's uniforms is the quality called for by the specifications. Galpin & James will undoubtedly receive the contract, which some aldermen desired to give to another firm on the pretense that the cloth was not up to requirements.

THE STREET CAR SERVICE

The Time Table Approved by the Council-Five and Ten Minute

The engineer made the change because Manager Carr said the first one was imhad made many friends here, with make cars turn in a bunch on Dundas street. The service now demanded is:

Belt line-5 minutes. Dundas street, east to the city limits-5 minutes. Dundas, from the easterly limits to Richmond — 5 minutes.

Mount Hope and Wellington street north-10 minutes. Wellington street south-10 minutes. West London-10 minutes.

Oxford street, Hamilton road and Rectory street-10 minutes. Manager Carr was seen today, and was asked what the company would do, but he had not been officially notified of the council's action up to that hour. The company prefer to run the belt line the present way, as it pays better than the former plan.

The Condition

Action of Turnkey Stickles.

Glassford Repeatedly Threatened to Escape if Possible by Every Means in His Power.

The condition of the wounded prisoner, John Glassford, continues about the same as yesterday. He sleeps considerably, and this morning said he could breathe heavily with very little pain. His temperature at noon was 1101/2 and his pulse 112.

The prisoner's younger brother paid him a visit this morning. They look very much alike. Young Glassford's first inquiry on entering the courthouse was, "Is there a lawyer in this town?" When he entered his brother's cell he burst into tears, and was unable to say very much. John Glassford's only inquiry was as to the reason his mother had not come to see him. "I am suffering here," he said, "and being punished for something I am not guilty of.'

The prisoner's brother argues that John had a legal right to escape if he could, and it was for the jail officials to prevent him without recourse to any unreasonable means.

Sheriff Cameron, who has been away The Toronto Globe today says: "The home last night. When asked as to news of the death of Mrs. Edward Har-ris was read yesterday with feelings of arms in such instances, he said there surprise and deep regret by a very were none. He expressed the opinion that Turnkey Stickles had shown a great deal of discretion. Having been her illness. Her death occurred at the placed in the yard with many other prisoners, and having to take in the situation in a moment, he had acted well within the limits of his duty. Firing his pistol the first time was sufficient warning. As the prisoner took no notice, the turnkey had fired with the intention of shooting the escaping man in the legs, as this was the most vulnerable portion, and not in the body. But the prisoner took great chances as to where he was going to be shot. Any jail officer in such an emergency could only take the most favorable course which the opportunity presented to prevent such a dangerous character escaping. The fault does not lie with the turnkey, but with the prisoner himself, who had on several occasions said he would use every means in his power to escape before he would go to Kingston for seven years, because he had been convicted unjustly on the evidence of persons who swore falsly against him.

> Revival of the Feeling That a Clash Between Spain and the United States Is Coming.

Key West, Fla., March 22.—The Unit-Magistrate Parke this morning for ed States court of inquiry into the loss drunkenness and failure to support his of the battleship Maine has at last finished its laborious work of investigating the disaster, and has submitted its has pointed out some alterations which he considers necessary, and the report will probably be taken to Washington today by Lieut.-Commander Marix, Hugh addressed the magistrate and judge-advocate of the court. It is possible that its arrival in Washington may be delayed several days longer, as Admiral Sicard said last night: could scarcely say that the report will leave tomorrow. The court has practically finished its work, but some details may engage its attention long enough to keep the report here several days. I trust, however, that the navy department will have the documents in a very short time."

It is even said that information to this effect has already been conveyed to the Spanish minister. If the United States is firm in its demand it is hard to say how a conflict can be avoided. FEELING IN SPAIN.

Madrid, March 22.-The Heraldo thinks that in view of the "ostentatious preparations" of the United States, Spain has full liberty to make similar preparations. The Globe insists that injury has been done to Spain by the United States squadron remaining close to the seat of war. It gladly notes, however, that the "verbal suggestions of Senor Polo Bernabe to Secretary Sherman have led to the withdrawal of a portion of the squadron, thus demonstrating the cordiality existing between the two countries. The Imparcial (Independent) expresses the opinion that the action of the United States has completely checked the advantages which Spain might have derived from granting autonomy to Cuba, and alleges that the United States has "practically strangled autonomy at its birth." The Imparcial thinks that Spain failed diplomatically in not having obtained the removal of Consul-General Lee. 'nor the withdrawal of the ship from Cuba," and expresses fear that "although military action will be keener than ever," "it will not suffice to pacify Cuba, owing to circumstances created by the United States." The Correo (Carlist) does not expect help from Europe, but hopes the Latins of America will support Spain.

NEGOTIATIONS FAILED Havana, March 22.-It is now known positively that the negotiations between Gen. Pando's delegates, Ramirez and Charvez, and Gen. Calixto Garcia and other prominent insurgents, in which the radical autonomists made what are said to be offers of practical independence, have proved an absolute failure. No particulars have yet been received at the palace here as to the place or the particulars of the meeting, but the failure of the negotiations is known, since hostilities, which were suspended in order to allow of the negotiations, have been resumed.

THE EXPLOSION OF EXTERNAL ORIGIN Madrid, March 22.-The Spanish Government has received a dispatch from its minister at Washington, Senor Polo y Bernabe, saying that the report of the United States naval court appointed to inquire into the loss of the battleship Maine, holds that the explosion was of external origin, AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT, Washington, March 22.-After the cabinet meeting today the following statement was given out from an of ficial source: "It was understood at the cabinet meeting today that the report of the court of inquiry would be here on Thursday or Friday; that it is a very voluminous document; that probably will not be given to the press and to congress before Monday; that the president will require that much time fo its proper consideration."

Montreal, March 22.-The Montreal Canadian customs officers have for some time past been aware that there has been a great deal of smuggling going on between the United States and Canada across the river at Cornwall.
