. A. Rowat & Co. IRON FOR STRENGTH

You need iron in the blood! Every healthy man or woman should have about as much iron in his or her body as there is in an ordinary railroad spike. To gain this iron, the best way is to take Tonal-Iron Capsules, a combination of iron in its most soluble form, recently discovered, and now having a marvelous sale. Tonal-Iron Capsules are a form of fron readily taken up by the blood. The blood cells get round, rich red in color, the cheeks are pink, the appetite improves, and one feels full of "snap"—"pep"—"vigor"—instead of tired before the day is half done. The eyes take on a lustre and the body feels that tingle which one gets from a cold bath.

For sale and guaranteed by all good druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of $1. Tonal-Iron Laboratories, Box 134, London, Ont.

CAPACITY AUDIENCES SEE "SOME BRIDE" AT GRAND THEATRE

Charming Viola Dana in Clever Comedy Drama Supported

Dorothy Dalton never has been seen to better advantage than in her latest film success, "Other Men's Wives," which played to large audiences at the Majestic on Thursday. This charming screen star is always a box office attraction, and yesterday was no exception to the rule. The story is a strong one, with situations that make the movie fans wonder what is coming next. It is the tale of an American girl who although separated from the luxuries to which she was used, wins her way in the world.

"Cynthia has been reared to be an ornament," said Miss Dalton, in commenting upon her new characterization, "and she knows of no way to support herself when bereft of her means. Circumstances may have forced many such girls into the situation of Cynthia. She was compolled to orrect." Dorothy Dalton never has been seen

"THE SPARK DIVINE" IS APPEALING PLAY AT THE PATRICIA

Alice Joyce Starring in Excellent Picture Now

Alice Joyce has a role of fine appeal in "The Spark Divine," her newest picture, which was presented at the Patricia Theatre yesterday, and will be repeated today and Saturday. The story was written specially for the star by Alicia Ramsey, and Miss Joyce is cast as Marcia, the young wife and mother who married, although convinced she never could love anybody because of her unhappy childhood, Marcia's husband married, equally confident that he could find a way eventually to awaken the divine spark of love in his wife, and the story centres about his heroic and finally successful endeavors.

vinced she never could lowe anybody because of her unhappy childhood.

Marcia's husband married, equally confident that he could find a way eventually to awaken the divine spark of love in his wife, and the story centres about his heroic and finally successful endeavors.

Tom Terriss directed the picture, and in the exceptionally meritorious supporting cast are William Carlton Jun., Eulalle Jensen, Frank Norcross and Mary Carr.

In addition to this feature film, an L-Ko comedy, "A Pair of Deuces," and a Mutt and Jeff animated cartoon are shown. Both are replete with excruciatingly funny situations.

In vaudeville, White and Brown, two clever character vaudevillians, present a comedy singing and dancing act. The entire program is commendable in every respect.

INGERSOLL, July 17.—Oliver Eilis, a widely-known resident of Dereham Township, died here today following an illness of comparatively brief duration. He was in his 56th year, and had resided all his life in Dereham Township, where he had followed farming. He was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at Verscherile, and highly esteemed in the community. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. Fewster, Tillsonburg, and Miss Annie W., at home, and two brothers, Frank and Thomas. Interment will be made Friday afternoon in the Ebenezer Celebration on Saturday, and, if the weather conditions are favorable, they expect one of the largest holiday crowds the town has had in years.

support herself when bereft of her means. Circumstances may have forced many such girls into the situation of Cynthia. She was compelled to agree to do something against which she naturally revolted, but from which she could not escape.

She was forced by clever intrigue to try to get an unsuspecting married man into a compromising situation, so his wife, in love with another, could not been trained to earn her own way, she had never been trained to earn her own way, she had never been trained to earn her own way, she had never been trained to earn her own way, she had never been trained to earn her own way, she had now the been trained to earn her own way, she had now the been trained to the certifical moment her better self triumphs.

She throws off the sham of society and makes herself independent even to the extent of a bare bread and but the right. Having the right mettle, she succeeds. Thus she is a charman an honorable fight when she has been untutored for the fight.

Jane Holden, a famous contraito formerly of Sousa's Bend, delighted the house with the risinging.

This excellent performance is concluded by a first-class comedy and a news film. It should draw capacity houses at all showings today.
