HAMILTON ORPHANS HAVE MOTOR OUTING

Taken in Thirty Cars to Winona Park - Condition of Miss Hobson Unchanged.

HAMILTON, July 8.—(Special.)—The members of the Hamilton Motor Club gave their annual treat to the inmates of the orphanage asylums in the city this afternoon. The children, to the number of about 140, were taken in thirty cars to Winona Park.

The condition of Miss Dorothy Hobson showed no change this evening. George Hope's condition showed some slight improvement. The premises of William Lees & Son, and John Beckett, bakers, were this morning raided by the police and a number of loaves of bread confiscated. The firms will be summoned for selling bread under weight in contravention of the new act.

Harry Roberts, aged 18, son of Mrs.

A. Roberts of Hamilton, was drowned in Alberta. A. L. Gartshore received word this morning of the death of Arthur D. Garrett an old Hamilton boy. Mr. Garrett an old Hamilton boy. Mr. Garrett died at Portage la Prairie while on his way home from Vancouver after an extended tour for the benefit of his health. Mr. Garrett was at one time connected with the Hamilton Provident and Loan Society and was later in partnership with H. P. Hemming in a coal business here.

An announcement that will cause much surprise and great disappointment, not only in this city, but in a number of western Ontario cities and towns, was made to-day. It was that the Hamilton, Waterdown & Guelph Railway project has been abandoned pared with $21,592.872 for the same period last year, an increase of $4,741,781. owing to the excessive cost of con-structing the terminals and the part J or to month of June alone the rethru the high level district, and the instilty of John Patterson to finance it because of these things.
