CHARGE OF MURDER DENIED BY LARSEN

in Shooting Case This Afternoon.

Brampton, Ont., Oct. 19.-The fate Chief Justice R. M. Meredith on the charge of having murdered his brother-in-law, James Davidson, on March 3rd last at Cooksville, will probably be decided tomorrow. Practically all the evidence in the case was taken today, and at the resumption of court at 9.30 o'clock in the morning, counsel for both sides will sum up. Larsen has pleaded not guilty. The case is expected to be in the hands of the jury in the early afternoon.

Joseph Larsen, a brother of the accused, testified to having brought whiskey to the Larsen home in Cooksville on the morning of March 3, to a party of four, consisting of Frank Larsen, Davidson, himself, and his father, Nelson Larsen. Two drinks, each of rye, taken stringht, put the party in a hilarious state. Frank Larsen and Davidson, Joseph Larsen stated, talked about shooting. They laughed and made plans for a hunting trin that afternoon.

Repudlates Statement.

Crown Counsel McKeown reminded the witness that he had signed a statement made to Provincial Inspector Miller, which said there had been some argument between Frank Larsen and Davidson before the shooting. J. Larsen today denied the truth of that statement. "I signed the statement." he said, "but I was rattled. There are some mistakes."

Dr. A. H. McFadden stated he had reserved a professional call to Nelson Larsen's house about three o'clock in the afternoon, on March 3. There, he stated, he found a man dead from gunshot wound, and that the man had been dead about two hours.

Constable William Copeland testified that Frank Larsen had threatened to kill him when he arrested the defendant. Cleveland Harris, who was near Copeland at the time of the arrest. said that Frank Laren had complained to him, saying: "You never see a Protestant and a Catholic marry but what there is trouble." It was reported the Larsens were Roman Catholics and the Davidsons Protestant.

Mrs. James Davidson, widow of the man killed, testifed that so far as she knew, her late husband and the prisoner, her brother, had always been the best of friends and never quarreled.

PARKS MAINTENANCE FOR MILL RATE BASIS

Council will be asked by the parks committee to put parks maintenance on a mill rate basis, instead of call-ing for estimates and making advances piecemeal, as in the past. At the meeting of the committee on parks and exhibitions yesterday Com-missioner Chambers was instructed to bring in a report on the cost of maintenance and improvements proposed, with a view to making application to council to approve the financial change. The view of the committee was that any extraordinary expendi-ture could be submitted to the ratepayers on Jan. 1.
