SUMMER HOUSES LOOTED

For several years past the summer houses on Ragged Point, near Bonaventure, have been broken into and their contents rifled. These depredations usually take place during the fall of the year during the shooting season. Last Sunday the houses of J. M. Robertson, Rev. R. P. McKim and Mrs. Foster were broken open and the doors riddled with rifle bullets. On the day in question three young men carrying firearms were seen coming from the houses. The police are working on what they consider a strong clue.

AT KAMP KUMFORT

A very enjoyable outing was held yesterday by the Kamp Kumfort boys at Bonaventure. About twenty young ladies and gentlemen went out in the noon train and a turkey dinner was partaken of in the afternoon. The gathering was in the nature of a closing of the Kamp for the season. In the evening dancing and music brought the pleasant affair to an end and all too quickly a return was made to the city on the Halifax express at 9:30 o'clock.

Business Notices

Special sale of men's and boy's overcoats all day Saturday at the Union Clothing Co.'s store, 26 and 28 Charlotte St.

The Young shoe store, 319 to 321 Main street, is crowded with the best and most up to date footwear to be found in this city. See the shapely rubbers on page 7. Also note what is said about the Gold Bond Shoes.
The sale of remnants in the dress goods and waistings departments at M. R. A.'s Ltd., today, started in bravely, despite inefficient publicity, due to lack of evening papers Thursday. Word of bargains at this big store, however, always spreads like wildfire, for ladies have grown to know what is advertised they will surely get. Tonight's advert, retells the story of bargains at this sale, which is to be kept going right up to closing time Saturday night.

It is expected that the Senlac will leave Halifax next Monday to take on the route again.
