A big recruiting demonstration is planned in the hall at Fairville tonight. The programme is especially attractive, and this will be the first official opportunity Fairville has had to show what she intends to do for the Kilties' battalion. Speakers are arranged for and the musical programme is very elaborate.

The Gaston Avenue Baptist church of Dallas, Texas, which some months ago was left without a pastor by the resignation of Dr. H. Alford Porter, was evidently well pleased with its experience of "Bluenose" preachers. At any rate it attempted to get another man from these provinces to succeed Dr. Porter. But Dr. W. W. Weeks of Springfield, Mass., who was called, declined the call, prefering to remain somewhat nearer the land of his birth. Dr. Weeks spent his holidays in the home land, and while here preached once in the Central church, St. John, and once in Moncton, where he enjoyed a successful pastorate some years ago. We have heard most enthusiastic reports in regard to the sermons preached on these occasions.
