Clears Way For New Battalion

Major Tilley Soon May Begin Recruiting: Five Recruits Yesterday; Casualty List Continues to Grow

Now that the authorization has been received for the recruiting of the 11th Battalion in any province in Canada, it leaves this province open for a new battalion and it is generally understood that Major L. P. D. Tilley, formerly recruiting officer for the province, will be in command.

RUDOLPH WILSON, of the machine gun section of the 4th Highlanders, who was killed in action on Sept. 25.

In the city yesterday five recruits were secured for overseas service: H. E. Moore, St. John, Field Ambulance; E. Burton, St. John, Field Ambulance; James Bryant, St. John, 28th Battalion; George Chatter, Queenstown, 6th Battery; and Viktor Makiela, Finland, 28th Battalion.

Casualties
The casualty list last night contained the names of five New Brunswick men: Killed in action, Sergeant J. Allen Pratt, Lewisville; Gunner William H. Hannister, Fort; Glen; Gunner Irvon N. Carson, Moncton; wounded, Driver J. Doherty, Moncton, and D. Grant, Dorchester.

Word has been received in Fredericton to the effect that Private Alexander Murray, son of Rev. Mr. Murray, had been wounded.

Private Eldon Dunlop has been killed in action, according to information received by Chief of Police Finley of Fredericton, who was asked by the militia department to find the whereabouts of the soldier's next of kin.

Three little girls of the West End, Misses Mary Watters, Bessie Vowles and Mary Clarke, held a bazaar on Saturday last, the proceeds of which, amounting to $3.10, they generously donated to the ladies of the west side who are making an appeal for a fund to provide smoking for the lone soldiers.

Maritime Visitors in London.
According to the Canadian Gazette the most recent Canadian visitors in London were: Lieutenant-Colonel A. H. and Mrs. Borden, Major A. J. Brooks, St. John; Miss M. Creighton, Lunenburg; Miss M. M. Crockett, Fredericton; S. E. Elkin, St. John; Major R. E. MacIsaac, St. John; Mrs. A. Mitchell, Halifax; and Staff-Sergeant H. Wheatley, Halifax.

Among the recent visitors to the office of the agent-general for New Brunswick were Lieutenant-Colonel T. C. Logie, of Fredericton; Lieutenant B. O. Kinney, of Florenceville; and Lieutenant J. D. Peters, 104th Battalion, of St. John.

Dental Draft Going.
It is understood that a dental draft of 100 men will shortly leave Canada for England, there to take up their duties in new environment.

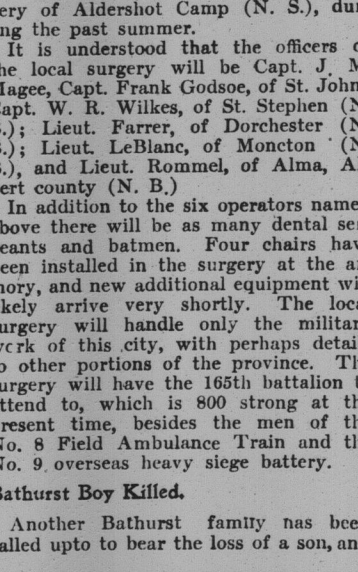

It is understood that St. John will have two or more representatives in that city, and that local dentists are considering the question of going overseas, where there will be no doubt be several from the province.

More men are being called into the local military dental surgery in the city of St. John just before the start of the winter season under the command of Capt. Dr. J. M. Magee, of St. John, who was in charge last winter, and who had charge of the dental surgery of Alderston Camp (N. S.), during the past summer.

It is understood that the officers of the local surgery will be Capt. J. M. Magee, Capt. Frank Gossard, of St. John; Capt. W. R. Wilkes, of St. Stephen (N. B.); Lieut. Farrer, of Dorchester (N. B.); Lieut. LeBlanc, of Moncton (N. B.); and Lieut. Rommel, of Alma, Albert county (N. B.).

In addition to the six operators named above there will be as many dental sergeants and batmen. Four chairs have been installed in the surgery at the armory, and new additional equipment will likely arrive very shortly. The local surgery will handle only the military work of this city, with perhaps details to other portions of the province. The surgery will have the 165th battalion to attend to, which is 800 strong at the present time, besides the men of the No. 8 Field Ambulance Train and the No. 9 overseas heavy siege battery.

What You Can Do For the Returned Soldiers
(By A. R. Dohle, president of the Khaki League, Montreal.)

The Military Hospitals Commission and many official and private organizations are spending much time and energy in behalf of the returned soldiers, but every Canadian citizen should and can take an interest in the national heroes.

Many have neither time nor opportunity to join an organization for that purpose, but much is to be done by individual and independent effort, intelligently directed. Here are a few suggestions which may help you to do your part.

Give Them a Welcome.
When you see in the papers that any of the boys are returning to your neighborhood, give them a hearty reception. Don't treat them to alcoholic refreshments. Many of the men are not in normal state, owing to what they have been through. Drink, under ordinary circumstances, a drink might do them no harm, under present conditions it might be a very bad thing for them. You will not wish to do an injury to those who have endured so much for you.

Employment.
Find out what jobs are vacant in your community. Make it a matter of pride for employers to give the first chance to a returned soldier.

Encourage the men to get back to work. Lending is bad for them, as it is for you.

If you are an employer, give the returned soldier a fair show. It may take a little time for them to get their bearings. Have patience with them, and encourage them—they have suffered so much for you.

Advice.
Be in a position to advise the returned soldier where to go in case of need, if you see one in any difficulty, try to help him out, or go with him where he can get proper attention. Help the men who have helped you.

Some of the places where information and assistance can be obtained follow:—The Military Hospitals Commission of the Dominion government has its chief office at 22 Victoria Park, Toronto, Ont.

Here is a list of the provincial organizations:—Nova Scotia—Returned Soldiers' Employment Committee, Metropole Building, 1000 Spring Garden Road, Halifax.

New Brunswick—Returned Soldiers' Aid Committee, 40 Canterbury street, St. John.

Prince Edward Island—Returned Soldiers' Commission, Box 308, Charlottetown.

Ontario—Soldiers' Aid Commission, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Quebec—Soldiers' Employment Bureau, 294 St. Catherine street, East, Montreal.

Manitoba—Provincial Returned Soldiers' Commission, 185 Lombard street, Winnipeg.

Saskatchewan—Saskatchewan Division of the Military Hospitals Commission, Leader Building, Regina.

Alberta—Central Provincial Committee of the Military Hospitals Commission, Government Buildings, Edmonton.

British Columbia—Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission, Parliament Buildings, Victoria.

Some of the provincial organizations have local committees in many towns, and more of these local committees are being formed.

Then there are the Khaki Club, 600 Dorchester street, West, Montreal, a soldiers' employment and information department in charge of a returned soldier, in addition to which it operates another club at 184 Peel street, as well as the Khaki Convalescent Homes at 46 Belmont Park, and 128 McTavish street.

Khaki clubs are also established in the cities of Quebec, St. John and Halifax.

In conclusion, take a personal interest in the returned soldier. They don't need treating, nor coddling, nor charity, but they need human sympathy and kindness, as well as justice.

Canada owes her soldiers a debt which money can never pay. Will you do your bit towards paying it as suggested?

SIR WILFRID ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

(Moncton Transcript.)

It is often said that politicians as they become older, become more set and conservative in their ideas, but Canada has a statesman and a politician in Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who seems to broaden out in his political views as his years advance rather than to become conservative.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's declaration at London, Ontario, last week, to the Canadian Women's Club there in favor of the abolition of the sex disqualification for the Dominion franchise was greeted with intense enthusiasm. He retains the Liberal stand of the province controlling the franchise, but holds that when a province declares for woman suffrage, the Dominion franchise shall not exclude her.

The federal parliament shall not exclude her from casting a vote in a federal election when she is qualified to vote in the provincial election. It is scarcely rash to state that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has settled the woman's franchise question in Canada. The return of the Liberal party to power at an early day is usually taken for granted, and therefore woman's suffrage upon the basis of the provincial franchise is certain to come at no distant day for Dominion elections, but it would not be surprising if Sir Robert Borden would feel compelled to give Sir Wilfrid Laurier's views immediate effect when parliament meets. He cannot afford to slumber in the political methods of the unreformed age.

Those New "Bran Foods"—a new one is born every week—a recognition of the need of food laxatives instead of drug laxatives. The problem of presenting bran to the human stomach in combination with a nutritious, easily digested food was solved twenty years ago by the invention of Shredded Wheat Biscuit, the food that supplies all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain in a digestible form, combined with bran, which is Nature's laxative. A body-building, strength-giving food. Serve with milk or cream or sliced peaches and cream or other fruits.
