RECENT WEDDINGS

Lutton-Griffith
A quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Griffith, 271 Duke street, West St. John, when their daughter, Bertha Elisabeth, was united in marriage to James Alfred Lutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lutton, of Clinton, Ont., by Rev. F. T. Bertram. The bride, who wore a crepe-de-chine wedding gown with an overdress and a veil, carried a bouquet of roses and was given away by her father. Mrs. Parker Mitchell acted as the maid of honor and carried a bouquet of sweet peas; little Miss Helen Flewelling acted as flower girl, while Miss M. Henderson played the wedding march. Following the ceremony there was a wedding supper. Later the happy couple will leave for a short motor trip, and on their return will make their home at West St. John. Mrs. Lutton, mother of the groom, was in the city for the wedding.

The house was attractively decorated for the occasion with ferns and cut flowers, and the bride was married under a large bell of daisies. The bride received numerous gifts from her large circle of friends as a token of their best wishes.

Colwell-Lunney
A pretty home wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at half past four o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lunney, 126 Main street, when their only daughter, Alice Maud, was united in marriage to Capt. Fred H. Colwell, retired master mariner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry B. Clark. The bride, who was unattended, was given in marriage by her father, and wore a traveling suit of navy blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. After the ceremony about forty sat down to a dainty luncheon. The groom's gift to the bride was an emerald neck piece. Mr. and Mrs. Colwell left by train for Boston and New York, and will visit the Toronto
