

NEW STUNT IN LABOR DISPUTE

State Employees of Italy Retain Positions, But "Soldier on Job"—Postal Service is Disorganized.

(Associated Press by mail.)

Rome, June 21.—The recent "white strike" of the state employees of Italy produced another series of innovations in labor disputes. The workers kept their positions and nominally did not cease to work but all "soldiered on the job" to such an extent that in many cases total abandonment from work would not have wrought greater damage.

The strike, besides involving the ordinary employees in the state administration, included the post office forces, which in Italy comprises both the telephone and telegraph. The employees would present themselves for work in the morning and "soldier" along with their work getting practically nothing done until eleven o'clock, when all would leave the various ministries and offices for a labor meeting.

The whole of the state's administration would then be at a standstill for several hours, while in some cases it extended for the whole day. Besides the mass meetings, there would be local meetings held in the various departments, all at the expense of the time of the government.

The greatest public inconvenience was caused by the attitude of the postal employees, including the telegraph and telephone staffs. Dismissal was threatened those who attended the daily labor meeting, but that threat only partially succeeded in restoring discipline. Telephone service was practically at a standstill.
Persons would attempt to get the cen-trals for hours and would finally give it up in despair. Occasionally, a central operator would answer, but there was never a guarantee that the connection wanted would be given.

The letter carriers also participated in the "white strike." The street letter boxes became filled too full for another letter. They were emptied only when it satisfied the whims of the man assigned for the work. The service was completely disorganized.

Premier Giolitti gave orders that all adhering to the "white strike" must be punished. Accordingly more than 100 were discharged in Rome, 400 in Milan, 140 in Naples and large numbers elsewhere.

BURIAL PLACE OF JOHN CALVIN

Geneva, June 22.—(A. P. by Mail.) Leaders of the Protestant church throughout Europe are showing lively interest in an announcement that the burial place of John Calvin, Swiss reformer, has been revealed after having been unknown for 337 years.

Calvin died in 1564 and was buried somewhere in the Plain-Palais cemetery here, but no stone has marked the spot.
According to the legend, he was buried secretly from fear that his grave would be desecrated.

Knowledge of the location of the grave is said to have been held by one family for more than three and a half centuries. The secret is said to have been handed down from father to son for all these generations.

Disclosure at this time is accounted for by the statement that the last holder of the secret, Eugene de Spiez, has not descendants, and, being seventy-one years old, decided to reveal the site of the grave to the Council of the Protestant church in Geneva.

NEW HOUSE STANDS IN PLACE OF THAT BURNED WEEK AGO

A week ago today the story was told of the complete destruction by fire of Charles A. Parker's farmhouse at Public Landing. On Saturday night a new house stood on the same site, with the roof shingled, about half of the sides shingled, the ground floor laid, all the windows in and one of the doors hung. As the first of the lumber arrived on Wednesday at noon, the actual work of putting up and covering the frame as described was done in three days and a half. The shingling of the outside will be completed today and the family will take up their quarters in the house tomorrow. This is the most rapid work of housebuilding ever seen in that section. It was made possible by the splendid generosity of neighbors who turned out with teams to haul the lumber and then turned to, under the direction of George Walsh, and erected the building. Eleven of them were still at work on Saturday. It would have taken Mr. Parker thirteen days to haul the lumber with his single team, but five double and three single teams made quick work of it. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are deeply grateful to their neighbors for the fine spirit of sympathy and helpfulness that has enabled them to save a roof over their heads again in so short a time.

DOG CRAZED BY THE HEAT TORE NOSE FROM CHILD

Lindsay, Ont., July 11.—As the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt.
Casey of the Township of Emily was toddling across the lawn, a dog, crazed by the heat, seized the child and bit off her nose. Dr. Sutton of Peterboro dressed the wound temporarily with two tubes, and rushed the child to the hospital. The dog was killed and its head sent to Toronto for examination.

CADETS RETURN FROM CAMP SUSSEX

The cadet camp at Sussex broke up on Saturday, the St. John boys leaving for their homes at noon and the others from Moncton, Sackville and Dorchester departing on the 2 o'clock special.
The camp commandant, Lt. Col. Powell, who returned on Saturday, said that it was the most successful camp yet held. The boys were well-cared for, no accidents occurring to mar the good record of the camp. The boys also enjoyed themselves to the limit and, while waiting at the station for the train to bear them to their homes, were heard to express their firm intention of attending next year's camp. This year's camp greatly exceeded last year's, both in numbers and in enthusiasm.

CHEERS BY 16,000 FOR WARLESS WORLD

New York, July 10.—More than 16,000 delegates to the sixth world's Christian Endeavor convention today gave a tremendous demonstration to an appeal for a "warless world" and a demand that the United States join some international association to promote world peace.
They cheered Fred B. Smith, chairman of the commission on inter-church federation, federal council of the churches of Christ in America, as he urged all Christian churches to bring pressure to bear upon the authorities at Washington to make the United States a member of the league of nations or some other guild.

quest on the body of a newly born in-

How Much Does a Good Watch Cost?

THE automobile has been instrumental in teaching us to figure costs.

The purchase price—plus the upkeep—divided by the years of service—gives

On that basis a good watch is the cheap-
