GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of West End Central Figures in Happy Celebration.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, 114 Winslow street, West Side, on Saturday evening their children, grandchildren and friends gathered to celebrate with them their fiftieth wedding anniversary. An address congratulating them on their long and happy wedded life, and testifying to the high esteem in which they were held, was read by Rev. J. Heaney, pastor of the Carleton Methodist church, and a purse of gold was presented by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. The presentation was made by the eldest grandchild, a committee from Jewell Releah Lodge of which Mrs. Campbell has long been a member, made a presentation of a bouquet of flowers in the lodge's colors of pink and green, and also a purse of gold. Another purse of gold was presented by the brothers and sisters of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and music and a dainty luncheon was served. Mr. Campbell has been a resident of Carleton for sixty-five years. He is enjoying the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have eleven children and twenty-six grandchildren. Many friends join with them in congratulations.

RE-UNION OF ST. PETER'S Y. M. A.

The members of St. Peter's Y. M. A. had their annual Christmas reunion yesterday afternoon in their rooms, Douglas avenue. The function was one of the most successful ever held and a large number of members were in attendance. Leo Durick presided and gave an opening address in which he wished all a happy and prosperous New Year. Following a selection by the orchestra Rev. William Hogan, C. S. R., spiritual director of the association, was made recipient of a beautiful traveling companion and a box of cigars. Eugene McBride, director of the orchestra, was also remembered, as well as the personnel of the orchestra and J. Connors, caretaker. The following programme was then carried out: Selection by the orchestra; vocal solo, Frank McGarrigle; trombone duet, John O'Connor and Eugene McBride; reading, Edward McNeely; orchestra selection; vocal duet, Edward Hansen and P. McCarthy; quartette, Moore brothers; reading, Edward McNeill; orchestra selection; readings, John Hughes; solo, Walter Bridge; duet, Edward Hansen and Walter Bridge; selection by the orchestra.

A pleasing entertainment was given the local newboys at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday afternoon. The affair was under the direction of the regent, Miss Marjorie Jones, and Miss Ellen Morrison, Mary Ellis, Phyllis Kenney and Miss Jean Sanction. A programme was also carried out in which Miss Rhona Lloyd, Valde Fenton and Olivia Gregory took part. The chaperones were Mrs. M. B. Edwards, Mrs. T. E. G. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Stewart Skinner.
