THE WAR NEWS.

The end of another week has come without news of the hoped for victory by the allied armies, which would have afforded ground for hope of an early expulsion of the Germans from French and Belgian soil. While the enemy has been compelled to give ground a little at some points along the battle-line in France, he has continued his successful advance in Belgium, and today's cables tell us of the occupation of Ostend by German troops. Twice this week it has been stated that heavy German reinforcements were being brought from the Russian border to aid the armies in France, and this may well be true. It is much more important just now for Germany to gain victories in France than in East Prussia, Poland, or Galicia.

The war has entered upon a new phase. The battle-line in France extends practically from the Swiss border to the North Sea, and there can be no further attempts by either side to outflank the other. Frontal attacks must now be relied on, and with the aid of aerial scouts each side will be able to watch so well the movements of the other that a secret concentration of troops at any one point will be practically impossible. Every effort of the allies must be put forth to prevent a German breach of their lines, and it would seem at this distance that they ought to be able to do so in spite of reinforcements brought up by the Germans. The latter cannot afford to leave their eastern borders undefended, or withdraw heavy masses of troops from the front of the Russian armies. If the allies in France can do no more than hold their present lines they will of course be gradually gaining victory, since Germany cannot afford a prolonged struggle nearly as well as the countries whose sea routes are open and whose trade and industry have not been crippled or destroyed.

There is a general feeling of disappointment that the Russian armies which set out with apparently so much success have not been able to pursue their victorious course toward Berlin. However, the resources of Russia are so great in men and materials that the delay can only be temporary, and a winter campaign will have less terrors for her soldiers than for those of Germany or Austria.

The operations in France will continue to be the centre of interest, however, since it is there Germany has attempted her master-stroke and has thus far failed. Some military observers express the opinion that she can never strike as hard again as she did on that first dash for Paris. That, however, remains to be seen, and there will be continued anxiety for some time longer, unless in the meantime the allies should by superior strategy and striking force gain such a success as would give assurance that the German march on Paris or the German occupation of the French coast of the Straits of Dover cannot be accomplished.

The spirit of the English people and of Britons everywhere is well expressed by the military correspondent of The London Times, who points out that Britain has already raised an army of 1,200,000 men, in addition to the expeditionary force now in the field and the hundreds of thousands forming up in India, Canada, Australia and elsewhere; and that this is only the beginning.

"It is only a question of time," says The Times' correspondent. "It stands to reason that an Empire of 400,000,000 can never lack men. This war for us has hardly begun. We have sent merely an advance guard into France. In the spring the remainder of the advance guard will follow, and somewhat toward the end of 1915 the main body will begin to come within view."

No British subject need have any misgiving as to the final result of this war. All should urge, however, that every effort be made in every part of the Empire to recruit and train men and then in readiness, so that no raw recruits may be sent to the firing line. There will be black days before the sunshine of peace wars and brighter the world. That dawn may be hastened by hurrying the equipment and training of the British armies which are to turn the scale in this great war of civilization against savagery.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

The Women's Canadian Club has become an institution of great value, and the remarkable success it has attained has been in very large measure due to the sustained personal effort and great organizing ability of Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who has filled the office of president for five years. In retiring from that office Mrs. Smith was able last evening to note the fact that the club has a membership of over eight hundred and to review a record of achievement in many lines which reflects the highest credit alike upon the officers and members. Mrs. G. H. Kuhring, who succeeds to the presidency, has been especially identified with the educational department of the club's work, and under her direction, with the cordial support invariably given to her predecessor in office, the institution must continue to be a very important factor in the city's life, from the social and intellectual standpoint, and in the development of a fine public spirit among the women of St. John. The support of this club has been of much value to many movements for the public benefit during the last five years. It has offered an opportunity for the social intercourse which breaks down sectionalism, and has also provided a medium for civic and patriotic expression, and the influential advocacy of many causes pertaining to higher ideals of citizenship.

Mr. F. Hopkinson Smith anticipates Zeppelin raids upon London and Paris. Such raids, while they might do a certain amount of damage, could have no effect on the final result of the war. Nevertheless the occupation of Ostend by the Germans cannot but cause some anxiety in England.

Not only will there be an excellent steamship service during the coming winter between St. John and the United Kingdom, but the service of the Australian and South African lines will be carried on as usual, while the shipment of horses will be an addition to the traffic that was not available in previous winters.

If there is any possibility of shipping pulp-wood to the Old Country during the winter the trade would be benefited in a season when the ordinary cut of lumber may be smaller than usual. Perhaps in this case, however, as in the case of pit props, the price offered will be too low to make the business worthy of attention. A lumber shipper informs The Times that the prices quoted by the pit prop commission a few days ago were such that it would be impossible to secure the material and ship it from New Brunswick without loss. Either prices must go up or all thought of securing a share of the trade must be abandoned.

The Montreal Star is unable to believe for a moment that the British Government has any intention of breaking the party truce which was reached "deliberately and with patriotic unanimity; in order that Canadians might move as a unit against by far the most menacing danger which has ever threatened our country or our Empire." The Star further declares that to spring an election on the Liberals in the face of this party truce "would be like approaching a foe with a flag of truce and then opening fire on them." In other words, a decision by Sir Robert Borden to bring on the federal elections would be an adoption of German methods in warfare applied in the political arena. It would, says The Star, "hearten our enemies and dismay our friends."

Mother (sternly)—Young man, I want to know just how serious are your intentions toward my daughter?
Daughter's Voice (somewhat agitated)—Mamma! mamma! He's not the one!—Puck.

MUCH PAIN FROM KIDNEY DISEASE

Doctored in Vain Until Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Were Used.

Kidney derangements are often associated with disorders of the liver and bowels, and under these conditions ordinary kidney medicines usually fail to effect cure. It is because of their unique, combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are so generally successful. Mr. Emanuel Bernard, farmer, St. Paul, Kent county, N. B., writes: "About eighteen years ago my wife was bad with kidney disease, and suffered greatly from headaches, pains in bowels, and stomach, and her heart was affected. For a year she was treated by her doctor, with no apparent benefit. She then used five boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with most satisfactory results. This gave us such a good opinion of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills that we always keep them in the house to be used for all derangements of the kidneys, liver and bowels." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, 25c. a box, 5 for $1.00, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE REASON WHY

You don't take sauce? Perhaps not, but if you look for the reason why, you will find it in the fact that the word "sauce" suggests to your mind a thin, dark, hot-tasting fluid, which, if taken at dinner, runs all over the plate, saturates the vegetables and eventually leaves a disagreeable burning sensation in the mouth. No wonder that under these circumstances you do not take sauce—but, change the circumstances, and the taste will probably change with it.

A new sauce has been introduced by the Midland Vinegar Company of England, which is known as H. P. Sauce, and is quite different to the old fashioned sauces referred to.

H. P. Sauce has proved an immediate success, and is now used regularly by those who previously never took sauce. It is prepared by blending together the choicest Oriental fruits and spices with pure malt vinegar. The manufacturers' secret process produces a thick, fruity sauce which, if poured on the side of the plate can be eaten with the meat like the food itself.

H. P. Sauce is also used very extensively in the kitchen, for housekeepers have discovered that old and familiar dishes of which everyone has grown tired become tempting and delicious when enriched and enlivened with H. P.

All family grocers are selling H. P. Sauce. Of course its success has brought many imitations, but if you ask for H. P. and see that these letters appear on each label, you will preclude the possibility of disappointment.

MRS. KUHRING
NEW PRESIDENT

Annual Meeting of the Women's Canadian Club

AN INTERESTING REVIEW

The Year's Work Told of by Mrs. E. A. Smith—New Members, The Officers and the Advisory Board

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who has been president of the Women's Canadian Club for the last five years, and who has seen it grow from a membership of 120 to more than 800 and become a great force in the social and intellectual life of the city, retired from office at the annual meeting last evening, and was succeeded by Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, who has also been in the club, especially in its educational work. The resignation of Mrs. Smith was accepted with great reluctance; she insisted upon retiring, because her duties in connection with the tuberculosis hospital, various patriotic movements and other duties make such demands upon her time.

The Year Reviewed

In the course of her annual address Mrs. Smith reviewed what has been the most interesting year in the history of the club. The lecture season began with an address by J. Norton Griffiths, M. P., on Imperial Unity. There was an historic evening treating of Fort Howe, and the president was able to say not only that the plans for a national park there had been prepared, but that the federal government had granted $8,000 toward the LaTour memorial, and further aid had been promised by the province and the city. Reference was made to an address by Mrs. Warren on Life in Singapore, and words to the war crisis and the duty those by Rev. Dr. Symonds, Talbot Paine and Rev. T. A. Drumm, and the president's illustrated address on Historic London. The Loyalist Day celebration this year was of exceptional interest.

After the burning of the Salvation Army Metropole the club gathered clothing for those burned out, and provided a banquet for the 250 citizens who conducted the great campaign for funds to build a new metropole. Illustrated lectures were given in the school buildings, flags were presented to several schools and prizes provided for the pupils of the deaf and dumb institute. A fund was made to the hospital ship fund, and the president noted that the three Canadian Women's Clubs of St. John, St. Andrews and St. Stephen gave $800 for this cause. The local club also provided some equipment and lunches for the soldiers who went to the front. Members are actively interested in the work of the Red Cross Society, the Soldiers' Wives League and other patriotic organizations. The president expressed the club's thanks to Walter H. Golding, Mayor Frink and the press of the city. Reference was made to an address by Mrs. Warren on Life in Singapore, and words to the war crisis and the duty of Canadians, quoting at the end the stirring poem of Agnes Maule Machar, a Canadian poetess, on Our Lads to the Front.

Mrs. James F. Robertson and Mrs. Kuhring paid warm tributes to the splendid service of Mrs. Smith during these five years.

The report of the treasurer, Miss C. O. McGivern, showed receipts $1,944.55. The expenditure included lectures and entertainments $387.63, gift to hospital ship, $200, for soldiers' benefit, $177.50.

Officers for the year elected were: Patroness, Lady Tilley; honorary president, Mrs. E. A. Smith; president, Mrs. G. A. Kuhring; first vice-president, Mrs. H. A. Powell; second vice-president, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley; third vice-president, Mrs. Richard O'Brien; recording secretary, Miss Ethel Jarvis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Melrose; treasurer, Miss McGivern, and literary correspondent, Mrs. Lawrence.

The advisory board was elected as follows: Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Geo. E. Smith, Mrs. John McAvity, Mrs. Frink, Mrs. J. F. Robertson, Mrs. T. H. Estabrooks, Mrs. David Hutchinson, Mrs. G. K. McLeod, Mrs. Arthur Coster and Miss Leavitt.

The following were the new members: Miss Ida A. Northrup, Mrs. Frank E. Crabbe, Mrs. Frank Smith, Miss McLean, Miss Margaret Hennessy, Miss Lillian Curry and Miss MacDonald.

Christmas boxes for Canadian soldiers at the front.

Mrs. George J. Clarke and Miss Gossell gave very interesting addresses at the recent convention of the Federation of Canadian Clubs held in Vancouver. Both were greatly impressed by the scope of the excellent work of the Canadian clubs throughout Canada. Mr. Clarke at that convention was elected vice-president for the maritime provinces.

Mrs. Kuhring, in accepting the presidency of the club, insisted on the adoption of a rule that hereafter a president shall be asked to serve for only one year.
