JUDGMENT OF PRIVY
COUNCIL WILL NOT BE GIVEN TILL MAY 4

This Means There Will be Doubt as to Right of Supreme Court to Deal With Marriage Case

Toronto, April 22.—In response to a request for definite information, the attorney general's department of Ontario has received word that the privy council will not hand down a judgment before May 4, in the appeal of the provinces from the decision of the supreme court as to its right to try matrimonial cases submitted by the dominion. The appeal was heard some months ago, and involved several points, among them the rights of the provinces respecting the chartering of companies.
The statement that no decision will be given before May 4 means that when the marriage case submitted to the supreme court by the dominion government comes up on that date there will be doubt as to whether the supreme court has the right to deal with the matter. Should the judgment of the privy council be entirely in favor of the provinces, and the right of the dominion to submit matrimonial cases to the supreme court be denied, the hearing on the questions raised with respect to the dominion parliament's right to enact a marriage law will, it is said, be of no effect.

FAMILY HERE FROM ENGLAND, AWAITING
HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD

Mr. Weeds Not at Wharf When Steamer Arrived and Wife and Children Seek Him

The immigration authorities here would very much like to know of the whereabouts of Edward Weeds, an Englishman who came to this city about April 1, working in St. John as present. Soon after his arrival here he secured work and wrote back home for his wife and family to come to St. John on the S. S. Lake Manitoba, which was the next steamer sailing from the other side. Instead, Mrs. Weeds and her family of four children, sailed on the Lake Erie, which was substituted for the Lake Manitoba, and arrived here yesterday. They expected to meet Mr. Weeds at the wharf, but he was not there.
Mrs. Weeds sought out A. P. Wilnot of the provincial immigration department and placed the matter before him. Mr. Wilnot made several inquiries but was unable to locate Mr. Weeds. He would like very much to hear from him.

HIS $12 OR NOTHING

The independence of the water owners was plainly demonstrated on Friday, says the Eastport correspondent of the Bangor Commercial, when one man who owns valuable weir on the Canadian side found about 100 hogsheads of herring in his weir but refused to seize them unless he got $12 a hoghead for them. He flatly refused an offer of $8 and allowed the fish to go out of the weir unharmed.

The S.S. Bengore Head, which sailed from Port Talbot on April 9 for this port, was reported to be short of coal which she had on board. After retreating to 239 she unloaded the coal and took some of a better grade. She left Port Talbot again for her on April 12.

RELATIVE HERE

A touch of local interest has been added to the terrible tragedy in Prince Edward Island in which the six little children of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Magee died within a few hours of each other, supposedly from ptomaine poisoning, in the fact that James McQuade, of British streets, is a relative. Mr. McQuade is at present in Boston, where there are several other relatives, and he is much interested in the investigation which has been instituted into the tragedy. It was at first thought that the little ones had been poisoned by some fish which they had eaten, but this theory has now been questioned because of the death of the sixth child. Mr. McQuade is acquainted with the family and other relatives in the island, though he himself is but a distant connection.

ACCIDENT SHUTS DOWN COTTON MILL

One Man Hurt When Pulleys Break in York Factory

One man was quite seriously injured, and others narrowly escaped in an accident which occurred in the York Cotton Mill about half past six o'clock this morning, just a few minutes after the machinery had been set in motion, and the employees, about 300 in number, had gathered for their day's work.
The pulleys of the main drive broke and wrecked the whole main drive of the mill. The pieces of the broken pulleys fell in all directions, and an employee named McParland was struck and somewhat injured. The ambulance was summoned and he was conveyed to the General Public Hospital.

A serious feature of the accident is that the mill will have to be shut down until such time as repairs can be made, and new pulleys received. This practically means that more than 300 employees will be thrown out of work for some time.

WALTER LONG MAY STUMP
CANADA AGAINST BILL
FOR IRISH HOME RULE

London, April 22.—Walter Long, M. P., speaking at Dalwell, declared that after reading the home rule bill, he could not understand how any man outside the walls of bedlam, should have produced such a measure. Far from being a boon to Erin, it was an insult to her people. If parliament were not sitting during August and September, the former Irish secretary said, he meant to visit Canada and place the whole question of home rule before the Unionists of the dominion.
Mr. Long said:
"When we were engaged in war, Canada sent a magnificent contingent, while the Irish members did their best to prevent men from Ireland joining the British army and navy. I am going to ask Canada what she thinks of a party which could be guilty of an attack of that kind, and whether the men who tried to paralyze our hands and check our progress were not traitors."
It is believed that if the case were put plainly before Canada, it would be found there was not any dominion support for home rule in the dominion, as we understand it.

IT IS TIME THIS WAS ATTENDED TO

The little garden space in Market Square was to have been prepared and planted with grass, shrubs and trees this spring. The expense was to be shared between the city council and the Arboriculture Society. The city council voted $200 for the share, which is ample, and the Arboriculture Society has its share ready. Mr. Gould has the plans prepared, the earth available for use, and all arrangements made to carry out the work. The city engineer was instructed to have the plot made ready. There is digging to be done, and material to be removed. Instead of this being done, a huge mound of street sweepings is being piled there, only to be hauled away again before anything else can be done. This is a repetition of what was done on the Germain street boulevard.
Two posts in the lot were to be removed. They are still there. It is probable that, unless the place is made ready within the next two weeks the Arboriculture Society will throw up its hands and abandon the whole scheme. That is what one of the directors said to the Times this morning.
