TRADE IS REVIVING

RETURN OF CUSTOMS REVENUE FOR OCTOBER.

Ottawa. Nov. 2 .- The customs re-Ottawa. Nov. 2.—The customs re-venue of the Dominion for October shows a considerably smaller falling off, as compared with last year, than has been the case for six or seven months past, indicating that the ex-pected revival in trade is beginning to be felt in the increasing orders for imported goods. For the month the imported goods. For the month the customs revenue was $4,316,473, as compared with $4,930,031, for October of last year, a decrease of $613,558. For the first seven months of the present fireal year the customs revenue has totalled $27,179,131, a decrease of $9,163,575. For the balance of the fiscal year it is expected that there will be a steady betterment in the monthly statements of the customs revenue.

FRIGHTENED DOE

LEAPED INTO STEEL ROLLERS AT SAULT STE. MARIE.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 2.—A peculiar incident happened at the steel plant this morning showing that deer are plentiful this fail. At 8 o'-clock this morning two deer left the water of St. Mary's River near the Commercial dock and proceeded along towards the steel plant. One, a large doe, became frightened at a passing yard engine, and rushed into the blooming mill, where it jumped into the rolls, breaking three legs. The machinery was stopped, and the deer taken out and killed. The carcass is now hanging in the blooming mill, where a number of the curious have viewed it. The other animal escaped in the water. Deer are plentiful this the water. Deer are plentiful this fall, and reports are already coming into the Soo of full counts. Today it is impossible to buy a deer license in the Soo, but some have been or-dered by telegraph and are now on the way.

Joint Meeting of Young People's Societies Held in St. James' Church

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
That the A. Y. P. A. of St. James' church are right royal entertainers was ascertained by the Young People of St. Paul's church last evening, when for the first time in the history of these societies a joint meeting was held.

There was a splendid representation

There was a splendid representation of young people of both societies and nothing was lacking that could make the evening an enjoyable one. The school-room was very prettily decorated with pumpkins, which were placed on tables scattered at intervals throughout the room, the candles in these being the sole illumination.

Tags were distributed among- the Tags were distributed amongs the young people, each of which bore a letter and two numbers. The one number signified the group, while the other pointed out the number in it. When the groups were formed, the letters put together made up the name of a place and when this was guessed, an unfinished limerick was handed to the group, which corresponded with the town or city which they represented, and to which they were required to add the last line. When all had been completed, the different groups were required to read Ingersoll runners. There are not a few who believe that the trophy will when all had been completed, the dif-ferent groups were required to read their limeric!: alond, which occasion-ed no small amount of aargement.
