

CHAPTER XLI.

the reins in her whip hand, and put When they had passed the edge of her left on his arm, pleadingly-"for the village the Banker said: "I doubt God's sake, for his mother's sake, save if you would have shaken hands with him. You can do it-you can believe him. You can do it-you can believe Mr. Mortimer if you knew-I mean, he that he is innocent, and stop everyis under strong suspicion, for he is thing. The money has been paid practically self-accused of having back." "It isn't that, Miss Allis"-his voice stolen a sum of money from the bank. In fact, I'm not sure that it wasn't was so cuttingly even after the erratic we could wait, but it would be de- of victory. from your father he really stole it.' pump of her own-"in a bank one must "I do know of this terrible thing," she not have a dishonest person. We must answered. "I shook hands with him investigate to the end, and if Mortimer can clear himself by fastening the because I believe him innocent."

"You know more than we do?" It was | crime upon the perpetrator-" not a sneer; if so, too delicately uttered in a tone of hopeful inquiry. if he would." "Mr. Mortimer could not steal-it is But why shouldn't he?" impossible."

"Have you sufficient gorunds for your faith-do you happen to know who took the man? He commenced by shielding Mr. Crane, and I believe you; you have the money, for it was "stolen?" to the bitter end "

The girl did not answer at once. At first her stand had simply been one of implicit faith in the man she had con- shield but himself, everything points it is impossible to prove Mr. Mortijured into a hero of all that was good to this conclusion. The money was mer's innocence"-she felt her own and noble. She had not cast about for locked up, he had the keys, no one helplessness, and who else could or extenuating evidence; she had not touched them-except your brother, and would care to accomplish it-"but it is asked herself who the guilty man was; that but for a minute-but if any sus- in your power to lessen the evil. Won't her faith told her that it was morally picion could attach to your brother you take my word that he is innocent impossible for Mortimer to become a thief. Now Crane's questions, more quent actions. It's unpleasant to even either he or Alan must be suspected, material than the first deadening ef- hint at such a contingency, but if Mor- and if it were brought home to my still he would feel insecure if the susects of Alan's accusation, started her timer is innocent, then your brother brother it would crush me, and my pected man, undeniably guilty, were to mind on a train of thought dealing must be the guilty one." He expected the girl to denounce inwith motive possibilities.

She knitted her small brows, and tapping the jogging horse's quarter with surprised that she remained silent. Her has determined to accept the disgrace, the whip she sat for many minutes non-refution of this deduction told him and he will go away. You can make silently absorbed.

Her companion waited for an answer | tered the accusation that she thought | sake." with his usual well-bred patience. Per- Alan had taken the money and Mortihaps the girl had not heard him. Per- mer was shielding him. It was but a ing him to acquiesence. He did not haps she did not wish to answer a phase of blind love; it was the faith answer at once, but sat moodily diquestion so unanswerable. He waited, women place in men they love, of which agnosing his position. If he refused Mortimer, being innocent, replaced he had read and scoffed at.

the stolen money, Allis's mind tabulated—she tickled this thought off on this man honest, believing her brother change from a state of possibility, from the horse with her whip-it was to the thief. shield some one. Her heart told her, his eyes had told her, that he would have taken upon himself this great pay. risk but for one person, her brother through which she ought to save him ence of Allis might effect a change in man, but in a manner not savoring of Miss Lena Workman, cash; Miss Lena traces:

straint. Great forces, in fighting each the college, the purely education taken it, he would do this; if he had Mortimer except at the expense of had taken the money, but blinded by it would be but a matter of manipulat AORANGI'S DEPARTURE. other turn over the laws as though work being put under separate ma Mayor Morley Briefly suspected some other person he would Alan; you would not have me do her love, evidently Allis thought, Mor-have made the matter known to the that. Besides, it is impossible—the evi-timer was shielding her brother, with the elements of his folly. He firmthey had never been enacted. This has ture Proposed by Australian Liner Carried Full Cargo agement. helped to make the country wondercashier. He did not replace the money dence shines as clear as noonday." Though it was to Crane's best inter- ly believed him guilty; Allis, misled by and Large Number of Passengers. fully prosperous. But whenever there Byat oncet, because he hadn't it. She "If you bring this home to Mr. Mor- ests, he pretended to consent out of her infatuation, mentally attributed MOTOR CAR AN AID TO CRIME. is a good era of prosperity it is folknew that Mortimer was poor. He had timer you will punish him, arrest him?" After loading about fifteen tons pure chivalry lation to her brother a reaction. Just now the en- Now Used by Burglars to Make The failed to find Alan until after Lauzan-That would be the usual course." local freight at the outer wharf the R. | tire world is prosperous, but this prossaid, "is very little; I would do a thous-The banker would go quietly to. ne's victory; her brother had told her She had taken her hand off his arm; Escape After Robberies. (From Tues this much, and that Mortimer had won now she replaced it, and he could feel nothing you could ask of me that pute. He might have hesitated, leavand times more for you. There is work to settle this point beyond dis-M. S. Aorangi sailed for Australia and perity will not always last. When the When seen this Suva Friday night. The steamship took world ceases to be prosperous so will a lot of money over the horse. Why the strong fingers press as though she would not give me more pleasure than ing well enough alone, had he been "Criminals are finding the moto out a full cargo of miscellaneous the United States. And then will come reporter Mayor Me would hold him to her wishes. freight, consigned to various points in the great struggle between capital and known Scotland Yard detective of the greatest assistance." said a anything else in my barren life. But possessed of any thoughts as to the ulindignation over t perhaps providence had guided, had "You will not do this," she said "for I could not bear to see you wedded to timate results of his investigation, but labor, and it will be worse in the Unithelped him that much. But surely that my sake you will not." the Antipodes. Among the passengers by some of the al Mortimer; he is not worthy-you are he wasn't. He reasoned that Mortimer ed States than in any other country, the difficulty of police work. ly. "and its use is naturally in who left on the steamship was J. Wilwas the money, his winnings, with Ald. Hall in an "You ask this of me, and it is for because of the utter disregard for law see how easy it is. A gang o too good for him. I don't say this be- had taken the thousand-dollar note son, superintendent of C. P. R. Telewhich he had replaced the thousand board of trade, in your sake?" cause he is more fortunate, but I love thinking to win three or four thousthere. The conflict will force co-operagraphs on the Pacific division, who is dollars. "Yes, if there is no other way; if Mr. you and want to see you happy." tion between capital and labor and then in town. A house for raid four 'first class' men have or a two months' pleasure trip. He is erating that his pr and at least over his horse. The Dutch-The girl's mind had worked metho-Mortimer, innocent, must take upon the United States will settle down to ed in the country perhap The girl was like a slim poplar. The man, and then replace the abstracted accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and son. dically, following sequence of action to himself this crime, then for my sake the expenditure Another passenger is Eddie Durnan, of enjoy a prosperity with a foundation miles from London, and strong wind of Crane's clever pleading money. Crane was aware that Alan sequence, until finally the conviction you will not punish him." provements to th and seeming generosity swayed her Porter had told Mortimer of The Toronto, champion oarsman of Amerof a permanent nature." that Mortimer had sought to shield her When such stat The gray eyes were violet-black in Mr. Conlay says that the attention of derstands the car thoroughly, an from her rigid attitude only to spring Dutchman's almost certain prospect of ica, who is en route to Sydney, where brother, and chance or Providence he will row George Towns for the the American people has been rivited is left in charge with everything t their intensity. those responsible back again, to stand straight and winning; in fact, the boy had suggesworking through herself and Lauzan-"If I promise-" He had been going beautiful, true to her love and faith in the that Mortimer had taken it for as perverters of t ne had placed in his hands the neces- to ask for reward, but she broke in, championship of the world. on Canada and they are watching for a dash if hurried flight sh put it any stro Mortimer. this purpose. Mortimer would not have The following is a complete list of closely the policy of nation building sary funds, came to her as fixedly as saying: "You will keep your word, and "You are very kind to me," she said, changed the note; would have taken passengers: N. C. Barker, E. Durnan, that has in this country, he thinks, necessary. A car standing ou pared to back ur the whole past panorama of events I will bless you." country house excites no wo proof. J. F. Gray and wife, P. Adams, W. simply; "I wish I could repay you." It straight to the race course. He must been wisely adopted. lay pictured before her eyes. "Nothing more-is that all?" remotest district now, so he is a As a matter of "Perhaps some day I will get a re- have lost it to some bookmaker over Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Chaffen, C. L. Sel-She saw all this mentally; but would The magnetism of the intense eyes he was prepared it avail anything in actuality? If the broke down his reserve; he slipped service." ward out of all proportion to this small the Dutchman. Crane knew the numlick and wife, Mrs. C. Lawrie, G. ly to be troubled by the att IN SEARCH OF STEAMERS. curious rustics night or day. T payers, if carried, boy disclaimed the guilt, as he had; if back twenty years in a second. Love Stacey, E. M. Moore, W. J. Shaw, Donber of the stolen note. The three one-She looked fair into his eyes, and on thousand-dollar bills were new, runis perhaps successful, the thier drain upon the Mortimer limited his defense to a touched him with a fire-wand, and his her lips hovered a weak, plaintive, ning in consective numbers, B 67,482- Leod, Mary McLeod, Monica McLeod, ald McLeod, Marie McLeod, Lena Mc-Supervising Engineer of Alaska Steamsimple denial, refusing to implicate her soul ignited. Cold, passionless Philip wistful smile, as though she were wish- 83-84; he had noticed that quite by out their haul, and then the defeated pro ship Company Has Gone East. London by a circuitous route The project su brother, what could she do except give Crane spoke in a tongue unfamiliar Neil McLeod, J. A. Mackay, Mrs. straight road, as circumstand vided for the co ing he could accept the inevitable and chance at the time; it was the middle Patcher, Miss Mary Taylor, Mrs. Halher moral support? To her it seemed though it was to him, that carried con- take her regard, her gratitude, her good one, B 67,483, that was missing. So he men, R. Hamilton, Alex. Smith, Mr. "To make an inspection of several Suppose the thieves are disco main to Elk lake such a small reward for his heroism; viction to the girl-just the conviction opinion of him and not wed himself to had a possible means of identifying the and Mrs. Eccles, Mrs. Dr. Eccles, Miss lake steamers that Charles E. Pea-That was the onl her faith would not save him from the that he was in earnest, that he was pos- a chimera which would only bring man who had taken the money. Men- Fleetwood, Miss M. Wylie, A. Wylie are chased to the road. If body, of the Alaska Steamship Comthe present mean brand of felony, and to follow out her sessed of a humanizing love. She listen- weariness of spirit in return for his tally he followed Mortimer during the and wife, J. Wilson, wife and son, Mr. reach the car they are safe pany, may take over for Sound runs, convictions publicly she must denounce ed patiently while he pleaded his cause goodness. soon reeling off the miles ount provided for George Lent, supervising engineer of her understanding, that, though Mor-of theft. Truly her position was one of the understanding, that, though Mor-ber understanding, that, though Mor-her unde body of water m day at Gravesend. From Alan he knew and Mrs. Young, Mrs. Taylor and themselves and their pursuer the company, left for Philadelphia last been voted and, t Daylight crime, too, is aide daughter, Miss Mears, Mrs. Keavick, evening in response to a telegram reextreme hopelessness. Two men she timer through all time had spoken not mer's name will be cleared, and you ing risked the thousand on his horse, ly be taken into motor car. Two accomplices ceived from President Peabody," says penditure upon loved stood before her mentally, one at all of love to her-at least not in will be glad you acted generously." to a house, and one goes bol the Seattle Times. would be saved b accused of others as a thief, and one- the passionate words that came from pared for robbery. He mean had been told that Lauzanne might donald, Mr. Dove, Mr. and Mrs. Rich-"It is the intention of the officers of 12-inch in connec her own brother-charged by her rea- this man's lips-yet she now heard chance," he said, evasively; "it's not and being unfamiliar with the folly of "Well, this will give him a better win. This had perhaps frightened him, ards, G. Wilson, C. E. Webster and work quietly, if possible; but the Alaska Steamship Company to retribution, so that sary, he will use violence, fo wife, Mrs. W. S. Sanderson and two place a number of steamers now on as though it were his voice and not good to crush a man when he's down. such a course he backed two horses in children, G. Hamilton and wife, Mr. Under the continued silence Crane's. Love was a glorious thing- I will see that no one connected with the same race-had put a hundred on and Mrs. Fleetwood, jr., Kelsey Newthe house has no car of upon the present local runs with new and faster boats. the by-law that grew restless; the girl, almost oblivious with Mortimer. safety is waiting for him Last season the Indianapolis was the bank shows him the slightest dis- Lauzanne at ten to one to cover his man, R. J. Duncan and wife, Dr. H. A. mitted for the en brought around from the lakes and has ease and expedition for a with his colleague. The of his presence, deep in the intricacies Crane's intensity availed nothing. respect. Of course he'll have to go, he risk on The Dutchman, feeling this Washburn, R. H. Henderson, Mr. and proven one of the crack vessels of the of the crime, gave no sign of a desire When he asked why she held faith to couldn't remain under the circumstan- made him more secure. He would Mrs. Seaman, H. B. Wallace and wife, perty owners, w the cost of redis Identification is soon disp Sound fleet. Reports received from the a man who must be known for all time ces-he wouldn't." was imperatively "Of course I am anxious to clear the as a thief, her soul answered, "It is either win a considerable stake or Miss E. Smith, Miss Grace Smith, S. A. East are that Mr. Peabody will purnumbers are soon changed. The horse had jogged slowly. Allis have sufficient on hand to cover up Jounnax and wife, J. Barrett and wife, wasn't included young man if he is innocent," hazarded nothing-because he is innocent." and other alterations will chase at least one vessel, recently had purposely allowed the old Bay to take his time. Unused to such a tol-was to find the note if possigle. Faust Carolan, Miss Annie Carolan, C. Caroscheme, which m "In my opinion, every big p the banker, to draw her gently back launched, which will be in the class of Because of her Crane would do anyinto the influence that he felt must be thing; the matter would be dropped erance he had scandalously abused the would be the man for this commission. will eventually require a fast r pensive. the Indianapolis. It is possible that he He wished to er of profit to himself. This assertion of as though it were all a hideous mis- privilege; once or twice he had even lan, Miss Harris, W. P. Smith, W. H. may take over two steamers before always ready for immediat as possible the f Crane's was only assimilatively truth- take. Mortimer might remain in the Immediately upon his arrival in New Baker, M. Delaparelle and wife, M. The news of an outrage comes navigation closes on the lakes.' cast longing glances at a succulent Yory, Crane telephoned to Faust, ask- Reilly and wife, E. R. Nixon and wife, ful. As president of the bank, natur-bank; his employer would even try to bunch of grass growing by the road-him to bring his betting sheet for the Gordon Miller, Mr. Warne, Robt. Reid, amount asked for phone, and the detectives are upon the complet ally he should wish to punish none believe him innocent, taking the girl's side, as though it were a pure waste of second last day of the Brooklyn meet. J. A. Lewis, E. A. Cook, A. E. Bailey, flash on the track. Mr. Mac SAVED BABY'S LIFE. other than the guilty man; as a rival protestation as conclusive proof. Her opportunity to neglect the delicacy for When Faust arrived at Crane's quar- A. Carnew, F. J. Swadling, Miss Sinwould be placed the assistant commissioner and to Mortimer for the girl's affection, he mother, her father, everyone would de- work when he had to do with such in- ters the latter said, "I want to trace a otte, Mr. Burns, Mr. Brown and Mr. absolutely needed the detective force at Scotla There are thousands of mothers could not but be pleased to see the mand of her, however, that she give different overseers. But now Ringwood thousand-dollar note, number B67,483. and Mrs. Wood. system should it has already his car on whic throughout Canada who have no hesiyounger man removed from his path, the dishonest one up as a possibility. immediately hurry to the sce years to obtain a l tation in saying that the good health was in sight, and there was still the I think it was betted on the Brooklyn and in a way which would forever pre- Even in his vehemence he lost no deli- matter of the money that had been Derby, probably on my horse." ply elsewhere. big crime. They will be neces enjoyed by their little ones is entirely all the chief police depots before ue to the judicious use of Baby's Owr -Thomas Stevenson, who has been cacy of touch. Why should she chain paid on her father's note to speak of. lieve in Mortimer as she might, he herself to an impossibility? It would She asked Crane where it had come Crane looking over his shoulder. "I the past sixteen years, was promoted REFUSED Tablets. And there are many mothers felt sure that she would not run but ruin the man she professed to re- from. HIS MASTER'S VOICE who do not hesitate to say that at crididn't have no thousand in one bet on to the position of manager a few days Newfoundland W: counter to the inevitable wishes of her gard. tical periods the Tablets have saved a "You won it over Diablo in the that race," he said. mother to marry a man who stood pub-The first instance recorded sion to Unite The Banker made no threat, but Allis Brooklyn Handicap," he answered ago. The change was caused by the baby life. Mrs. Wm. Fortin, St. Gene-"What are those figures," asked the great expansion of business which of a dog using a telephone o licly branded as a thief. vieve, Que., says: "I feel sure that the other day, when a pool Baby's Own Tablets saved my baby's been lost by two provincials shuddered. She knew. The narrow bluntly. other, pointing to two consecutive gives Stephen Jones, the proprietor, Allis answered his observation-he lidded eyes had closed perceptibly when "You won it," she corrected him; "I numbers of one thousand each. been lost by two provincials of St. Johns, Nfld., distinctly felt the vibration of pain in their owner talked of the alternative. refuse to accept it." life. When I first began giving them stay in the capital was more than he can cover single handed. their owner tarked of the alternative. He, Crane, loved her—she felt that was true. He was rich; for her father, Treplied. "I'm a busy man, and having fal ministry has n her voice-with a startling depth of He, Crane, loved her-she felt that to him he was so badly constipated this means. It answered th States naval tug analytical discernment: left by the owners as to outwal ance, and in order to solve all probable masters were rung to that the bowels could only be moved "While I believe in Mortimer's in- for her brother, for herself, even for the money thrown back on my hands, over Lauzanne. I think it must have now at Bay of Is "While I believe in Mortimer's in- for her prother, for hersen, even for the money, for one of the guys believe in it, Mortimer, he would use his wealth. He as it was not mine, caused me con- been stable money, for one of the guys the, has assumed the position of chief by injection, and he suffered terribly. tores in spite of After the first day I saw a marked I am afraid that he has drawn such a pleaded his cause like a strong man, siderable inconvenience. I deposited was like a big kid; he didn't know country telephone and asked concession is acco change, and in less than a week the nunicate with the dog, against web of circumstantial evidence about and when he spoke of failure because three thousand of it against the note enough to pick a winner in a thousand in these waters. him, trying to shield some one else, of her preference for Mortimer, an ac- to save both your father and myself years." clerk. rouble was entirely removed, and he the receiver was placed. The Potomac that-that-it is too terrible!" she ridity crept into his voice that meant needless worry. There are still some has since enjoyed the best of health." self called by its name the a Alexander, chief o into a joyous, excited bark, recognized by the owners at The coincidence of this amount was larger proportion of fragrant species than larger proportion of fragrant species than You can get Baby's Own Tablets from and methods of the resentless prosecution. hundreds due you, and I wish you the win attributed to Mortimer, apyour druggist or by mail at 25 cents a For God's sake, Mr. Crane"-she took She sould not hold this full power would please tell me what I am to do pealed to Crane's fancy. "You remem- and blue for the departmen end of the wire. The dog wa any others: next comes red, then yellow box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine forwarded to its masters by rail. labor, who is study Co., Brockville, Ont. land fisheries disput

VICTOBIA TIMES, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1906.

ver Crane without feeling its value with it. To pledge herself to him as wife was "I'd rather pay you back the three he asked. ossible; she could not do it; she housand now "I can't accept it. I have enough Fate played into his hands without doubt, but Fate was not Proviney of my own to worry along on. dence. A decree of this sort, iniquit ous, was not a higher command, else she would not feel utter abhorrence of must settle it." the alliance. Paradoxically the more vehemently Crane's love obtruded itself Ringwood house. the more obnoxious it became; it was "We are home now," she added, "and something quite distinct from the man's I want to say again that I'll never forown personairy. She did not detest him individually, for the honesty of his get your kind promise. I know you will not repent of your goodness." Mrs. Porter saw Allis and Crane to love absolutely as a compelling factor, appealed to him as a man having regether in the buggy; it pleased the good gard for her, a woman he believed in. It was a most delicate cleavage, yet spirits. She was not mercenary, but unerringly she attained to its utr point of discrimination. Perhaps it was there had been so much at stake. Now the strength of her love for Mortimer in one day Providence had averted disthat enabled her to view calmly this aster, and she had awakened from a get help if necessary; go to every bookpassionate declaration. A year before, terrible nightmare of debt. The sun- maker that was in line that day. If unsophisticated as she had been, it would have thrown her into an agitated band's being into hopeful activity, a onfusion, but she was developing rap- brightness was over his spirits that idly; responsibility had tempered fine had not been there for months. It was the great will power which was hers like an augury of complete desire that in such a marked degree. Crane should come the day of their "I am sorry, Mr. Crane," she began, good fortune with Allis. If she would conventionally enough, "I am sorry; I but marry him there would be little couldn't marry a man without loving left to worry about. So it was that Crane, perplexed by his recent love him. What you have just told me must win regard for you, because I check, and Allis mired in gloom over know that you feel strongly. and I her hero's misfortune, stepped into think any woman should take an ofradiancy of exotic cheerfulness. fer of honest love as the greatest com-The brave girl sought to shake off her gloom, chiding her very heart for

"But I don't ask for your love now," its unfilial lack of response. Crane, ache interrupted. customed to mental athletics, tutored "Ah, but you should. You shouldn't his mind into a seeming exuberance. marry a woman unless she loves you. At any rate I feel that way about it. and playfully alluded to his own defeat at the hands of Allis and the er-Of course, if there was a chance of my ratic Lauzanne. There was no word of the bank episode, nothing but a paean coming to care for you in that way ceiving you to give hope.' Crane's statement to Allis that he was going to see her father was only an

"Is it because you care for Mortimer?" he asked. "I think it is. I suppose if I am to help him I must be quite honest with village. There he had a talk with the you. I do not want to talk about it—it cashier. Mortimer was to be asked to "He never would do that; he cannot seems too sacred. I have ever spoken "What can I do them, Miss Allis? less to Mr. Mortimer of love." she added, with a painful attempt at a smile. "Can't you see-don't you understand "You have said that you care for me, some one, and he will carry it through been generous to my father, also. Now won't you promise me something, just "I am afraid there was no one to for the sake of this regard? I suppose it is all dissipated by Mortimer's subse- and stop everything? As you say, mother and father."

"What can I do?" dignantly such a possibility; he was "Just nothing. I know Mr. Mortimer as conclusively as though she had ut- his load as light as possible, for my and prosecuted Mortimer, the girl, more Against all evidence she was holding determined than many men, would simply not loving him to a vigorous Her very faith in Mortimer cloud, and his removal from the pres- crime absolutely home to the accused Yes, Mortimer was a hero! The horse by inspiring Crane, determined the lat- her regard. He would accelerate this persecution, else the girl's present lazily going, jumped a little in the ter to crush utterly the man who stood wished-for elusion of love by procuring friendly regard would be turned into she had struck him a harder between him and his great love. In- absolutely indisputable proof of Mor-tap with the whip. Allis continued her mental summing up. Why did Morti-mental summing up. Why did Mortimer go to Gravesend? It musts have diplomacy; he took refuge behind the the guise of clearing the innocent one his nature to leave anything to conjectution for permanent future gover and preserves; Mrs. Tennant, marina-One of the reasons for this is that in- ment was discussed, and in general ALDERMAN been to see Alan-the boy was there. brother of Allis. lade; Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, cash; of the suspected two; for Allis alone ture; in all his transactions each link dividual effort is not penalized in Am-If he had discovered that the money was arranged that the Royal Inst "You see," he said, and his voice was this would be. To him there was not in the chain of preparation for the ex-Mr. Lily, grapes. was missing, and thought Alan had modulated with kindness, "I can't save the slightest ground for supposing Alan ecution was welded whole. He felt that erica and is under practically no retion should be the business board with fine, wise discrimination.

The small hand on his arm was draw-

CHAPTER XLII .

ber the man who made this bet, then?" "Yes, sure thing. There was two of Fell While Carrying Two Shotguns and em, as you see. I remember him because it took some explainin' to get "Well, I wash my hands of the whole affair. When father gets stronger he soft mark for a bunco steerer. I've near Michel on October 5th. Four

nuest

built up."

WISE POLICY IN

Canadian System of Immigration-

American Conditions.

been travelling on this continent.

seen some fresh kid's playin' the miners went out for a hunt up the Elk They had turned into the drive at horses, but he had 'em all beat to a river, and when about a mile above the standstill. It must a been first-time the river bridge which spans the Elk luck with him, for he cashed." "Can you describe him?" The Cherub drew an ornate verbal picture, florid in its descriptive phraseology, but cognate enough to convinc Crane it was Mortimer who had made woman vastly. Allis's success with one of the bets. His preconceived plan with the two guns which he was carry-Lauzanne had taken a load from her of the suspected man's operation was of the suspected man's operation was working out

"Now find this thousand-dollar note for me," he said; "take trouble over it; shine of success had warmed her hus- you find the note, exchange other money for it and bring it to me."

(To be Continued.) DONATIONS ACKNOWLEDGED.

Contributions Received at the Aged small children. Women's Home on Wednesday.

The following donations, for which the committee of management extend grateful thanks, were received at the Aged Woman's Home on Wednesday on the occasion of the entertainment held there: Mrs. R. F. Landsberg, sugar syrup, marmalade and biscuits Mrs. Jones, tea; Mr. Watson, grocer butter and paper bags; Waitt & Co. loan of piano; Hibben & Co., candy boxes; Miss Geischman, candy; Miss McTavish, candy; Mrs. Whitely, cakes; Mrs. Van Tassel, pears and apples; Mrs. Hirsh, tea and rolled oats: Wm. Speed, tea; Mrs. Lester, sack of sugar; Bishop Cridge, tea and coffee; excuse. He soon took his departure, Mrs. A. Sea, sugar, jersey cream and a stable-boy driving him back to the cream of wheat; Mrs. Walter Chambers, cake and ice cream; Mrs. H. A. Morley, cake; Mrs. J. A. Sayward, 100 resign as soon as his place in the bank pounds of sugar; Mrs. Fred Carne, jr., could be filled. No further prosecution tea; Mrs. J. A. Grant, brown bread; was to be taken against him unless Mrs. Crimp, bread; Mrs. Conyers, Crane decided upon such a course. "In bread; A Friend, 50c.; Mrs. Carne, the meantime you can investigate sugar and cake; Mrs. Goodacre, ice cautiously," he said, "and keen quiet cream; Mrs. Whittier, ice cream; Mr. to yourself any new evidence that may Jeff, B. C. Market, beef tongue; Mrs. turn up. So far as Mr. Mortimer is E. B. Marvin, tea and sugar; Mrs. T. concerned, the matter is quite closed ' Burns, cake; Mrs. M. R. Smith, box of The cashier had always considered fancy biscuits; Miss Gill, cash and his employer a hard man, and, in candy; Miss Raymond, cake; Mrs. H. truth, who hadn't? He could scarcely understand this leniency; he had expected a vigorous prosecution of Mor-Langley, tea; Mr. Harrup, cake; Mrs. from the steamer Indianapolis was timer; he had almost dreaded its severity. Personally he had no taste for it; Ellis, jelly; Mrs. Waitt, cash; Miss Spencer, cake; Mrs. E. P. Siddell, candy; Mrs. Harvey King, candy; Mrs. remain in the bank. His dismissal from David Spencer, cash; Mrs. F. O. Sidthe staff was a wise move, tempered del, candy; Mrs. J. M. Campbell, candy; by unexpected clemency. If there was Mrs. Wm. Grant, cash; Mrs. Parcell, milk; Mr. Dean, cream; Mrs. Glover not something behind it all-this contingency always attached itself to flowers; Miss Leitch, candy; Mrs. Crane's acts-his employer had acted Hemsworth, graham biscuits; Friend, cash; Mrs. C. E. Todd, cash; Mrs. Iron sides, tea; Mrs. E. McQuade, cash; Newcomb, cash; Mrs. Fore-Mrs. Crane returned to New York, his man, cash; ' Mrs. Wilkins, mind working smoothly to the hum of the busy wheels beneath his coach. Mrs. Dempster, sugar; Mrs. Lei-ser, cake; Mrs. Frank Richards, tea This degrading humiliation of his and coffee; Mrs. W. R. Higgins, cake rival must certainly be turned to ac- and cash; "Bijou," corn starch; Hon. steamboat line, and the result is, of count. With Allis Porter still believing J. S. Helmcken, cash; Mrs. G. Jones, Surely a love like that was worth hate. If he hushed the matter up in Mortimer's innocence the gain to tea; W. O. Wallace, sack of sugar and winning; no price was too great to Mortimer would go away under a him was very little; he must bring the box of fancy biscuits; Flewin's Gar-Chambers, cash; Miss Duff, cash; Miss Brooker, cash; Mrs. Whittier, cash; abhorence. In addition to this motive Mrs. Flett, cash; Mrs. Holmes, tea and breakfast food; Master Jones, bread

HUNTER'S DEATH. ROYAL INSTITUTION HOLDS FIRST MEETING Was Instantly Killed. Decides to Act as Business Board College-Engineering Course Organized. above the mouth of Michel creek, the men started to cross the stream on a raft. Three of the men, J. Guger, Wm The Royal Institute for the Advance Bruno and Verent got on the raft safement of Learning in British Columb ly, but the fourth man, J. Jareno, a held its first meeting for the colleg. Hungarian, while attempting to get or year of 1906 at Vancouver on Frida ing, slipped, and falling forward on the last. Those present were: Hon, raft, a shotgun was discharged, the Carter Cotton, president; Alex. Rol son, provincial superintendent charge passed upward along his abdocation; Dr. W. Eaton, David R men and breast, burning the flesh and skin in its course, and entered his head son, Dr. Tunstall, R. P. McLennan J. Campbell Sweeny, James Ramsa from beneath the chin and through his brain, causing instant death. Coroner Principal Shaw, W. P. Argue and D Bleasdell was telegraphed for, but Tory. found it unnecessary to hold an in-Principal Shaw reported that lasses in arts and engineering w Mr. Jareno was about 25 years of age fully organized. There were and leaves a young widow and two taking the first year in applied sc 26 the first year in arts and seven second year in arts. Sixty candid have been taken into the ma tion classes. The specially ture of the work was the start BUILDING UP COUNTRY the engineering department. This partment has been placed in c H. K. Dutcher, M. Sc., of McGill Australian Press Representative Admires Dutcher graduated from McG electrical engineering, obtaining i course the general electric sch He also took a practical the Allis-Chalmers Bullock Co. of cinnati, and later held the positi assistant engineer in their Mon "Canada has a better system for branch. He resigned this post uilding up her country than the Unitaccepted the post of lecturer ed States," says James de Conlay, jr. engineering in McGill and special Australian press correspondent, the degree of M. Sec. as the who has during the last three years investigations in the university tories. He has also had practical "On the other side of the line it is a perience with the Boston case of building up cities," he said. Railway Company, the Montreal "In Spokane, Seattle and Tacoma you Railway Company, and the have two-thirds of the population of Light, Heat & Power Company, Washington, and so it is in a great of the work in mathematics many parts on the American side. In physics is at present being taken Canada, though, the conditions are dif- Dr. Troy, who is in Vancouver ferent. Here you place your immipleting the organization of the grants on the land and the country is versity College work.

The names of persons for other ar Mr. Conley is a magazine writer of itments on the staff were wide experience and is now about to go ed. Definite action was deferred. to Europe in the interests of the Cosit was decided to have Dr. David Clay, brown bread and cake; Mrs. S. he has not been in Canada, and the of the science department until Ch mopolitan magazine. For fifteen months change to him when landing Friday mas.

It was seen that in the near fut remarkable. He now purposes seeing the growth of Vancouver would portions of the great Dominion which the work being carried on by the R he has never seen, notably British Co-Institution, out of the rooms lumbia and the Northwest Territories. Having just travelled over 70,000 occupied in the High school bui In view of this the matter of sec miles on railway and steamer, Mr. Cona new site was discussed and a co lay has come to the conclusion that Canada possesses also a better system bell Sweeny, Dr. Tunstall, James Ram mittee, consisting of Dr. Tory, Cam of transportation than her neighbor nation. The Americans, he says, have F. B. Gregory and School Superint say, R. P. McLennan, J. C. Shaw, (some of the finest equipped railways, dent Argue, was appointed to take u possibly in the world, but when it the question omes to steamship lines they are dif-It was agreed that if possible a pie ferent. The reason, he explains, is that in the United States a railway ly large to make it possible to gra of ground should be secured sufficient man is almost invariably placed over a sites to colleges of any religious nomination which might wish to course, a failure. Here it is different, fillate. the railway and steamboat business is The work of the college is now bein managed under separate heads, and the organized to give the first two year effect is transparent to every traveller. arts and the first two years in e Speaking of conditions on the Amerigineering; as soon as there is a suffican side, Mr. Conlay said: "The counelent demand to warrant it the four try is not more resourceful than Ausyears in arts will be given. The question of by-laws and cor tralfa, yet there is no comparison in the development of the two countries.

the trouble. negro artist, was the N. W. Harris best painting at t bition of America will open at the A row. Yesterday at tion the art comm tion carefully went ber of paintings hu fell on Mr. Tanner the Tomb" unanin shows the faces of fore the Saviour's light playing acro which are strained while awaiting the promise that had b TAKES EXCEPT Chicago, Oct. 16 .her daughter and Mrs. Sarah Alcopa husband early to-The shots were fir life. Alcopa was cha house with a butc ran into her bedr fired two shost, one the left temple an floor and died. Negro Artist Awar Commission Ins Chicago, Oct. 16.

$1.00

Vol. 37

SHOT BY HIS WIL

Jealousy on Man's

Been Cause

Chic

PRESENC

lung. The man in Jealousy on the said to have been WON PRIZE I