The Speedy Four From Colum River Carry Off Regatta Laurels.

Finish of the Great Event Shawnigan Lake-The Banquet.

Another regatta of the N. P. A. has passed away bringing its sha triumphs and disappointments various cities represented by crev with one ground of common sati to all, namely, the lowering of t cords of the senior fours of the a tion by nearly ten seconds. It hardly be said that this was unexp for the course was such an exceller that on Friday morning Dan O'Su the veteran stroke of the J. B. intimated that in his opinion the would be pulled down to 8.40 seniors. As a matter of fact the made on Saturday was a little bette that, being 8.39 by the stop water the official timekeepers. The conditions were ideal for the ing of a new record. The surf the lake was quite calm with the tion of a slight ripple caused by a from the land which bore do course, thus enhancing rather tha venting the making of good time.

The three crews entered for th were carefully aligned by the Ben Gordon, after the conditions ing the race had been explain Umpire Roberts. Mr. Roberts ther the respective crews if they were able to the race being called back oar broke within the first ten Portland and Victoria nodded escence, but Vancouver shouted
"As you will then, gentlemen Mr. Roberts, "once away there stoppages for nothing," and every man knew that the fight w ne to a finish. At the crack of the pistol the got away together, Victoria and land catching the water a trifle than Vancouver, but the start as a being nearly perfect. The Victor were pulling 36, in which they we licated by Vancouver, while P pulled away at 32. Vancouver w ing with strength and determ Portland with a swing that spot for their training, and Victoria w doggedness of old hands in the The result was in doubt up to the the terrific pace at which the worked and the wide distance which they rowed rendering spec as to the result very unsafe.

Until the boats had reached to opposite the saw mill and abo way down the course the blue and of the J. B. A. A. were in front the Portland stroke played his card, and sent the pace up to a and despite the fact that they sa opponents steadily moving up t vance the stroke.

There were a number of reason this. One was the terrific pace at they were moving, and another tributable to the disadvantage which one of the local fours Bridgman was afflicted with hoils which in a less plucky o would have prevented his enter competition, and which, as a market, kept him out the boat for shortly before the event.
