PROVIDING FOR TROOPS.

Russian General Says They Are Well Supplied With Warm Clothing.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—General Sukhotin, who is on his way to the Far East, telegraphs to War Minister Sakharoff from Tomsk, Siberia, as follows: "During my long journey I saw several divisions of troops. Their transport was proceeding in perfect order. The men were provided with warm clothing. At Chelabinsk everything is under the control of the military chief of the district, who sees personally that the troops are supplied with warm garments."

RUSSIAN NORTH OF YALU.

London, March 3.—Hardly a word of news from the seat of war, the reception of the Russian official dispatches published here this morning, and it now seems clear that the story of the bombardment of Port Arthur by the Japanese on February 29th, is a re-echo of previous attacks.

From Yankow comes the report that five hundred Russian soldiers, a Russian post to the west of Haichang, 42 miles east by north of Newchwang, that there was severe fighting and both sides lost heavily. This report is discredited, at Yankow, but it is true it indicates serious danger is confronting Russia in these well-armed brigand bands. According to the Daily Mail's account of this affair six Japanese found and killed bandits were killed. This would tend to show that the Japs are organizing the lands.

Reports received here from Tokio indicate Japan has granted permission for 53 foreign newspaper correspondents to accompany the Japanese forces.

A mile and a quarter of the Siberian railroad, according to the Tokio reports, has been destroyed in the Niguta district, between Vladivostok and Harbin.

The Tientsin correspondent of the Standard calls that the Russians are fortifying points south of Mukden. Heartrending stories are appearing in English newspapers of the sufferings of refugees from Port Arthur on the train journey to European Russia. It is reported that there is a scarcity of food and water.

Filled to Find Enemy.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—In a dispatch to the Czar, Viceoy Alexieff says: "Admiral Stark, telegraphing from Port Arthur to-day, March 2nd, says the enemy did not appear off Port Arthur on February 28th, 29th or March 1st. Reconnaissance made by cruisers and torpedo boats failed to discover the enemy's vessels."

Major-General Pfing sends the following telegram, dated March 2nd: "According to additional information which has reached me, our patrols have passed the night 12 vests (eight miles) from Ping Yang, approaching that town on the morning of February 29th. They closely pursued a Japanese patrol which seven officers, forcing it to retreat at a gallop towards the gates of the town."

The Russian government earnestly desires the conservation of the ancient friendship between the United States and the Empire of Japan. It is pressed here that the two countries are now on the eve of a better understanding.

Negotiations have been completed with France, Great Britain and Italy for the repatriation of the Russian sailors who were taken aboard vessels of these countries after the Chemulpo fight. These men will be brought to Yokohama and Russia's pledge not to allow them to fight again during the continuance of the war.

The cars on the ice railroad over Lake Baikal are now drawn by horses, a locomotive which performed this service having broken through the ice.

More Japs Landed.

Twenty-Five Thousand Debarked at Sougin and Started for Korea.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—According to a special dispatch from Port Arthur, 20 Chinese have been arrested there signalling to the Japanese from the shore with flashlights and lanterns. A warning has been issued that similar offenders will hereafter be treated as spies and shot.

Although it is denied that the present plans of the admiralty contemplate the dispatch of either the Black Sea or Baltic fleets to the Far East, both are being prepared with the greatest haste to meet any emergency that may arise.

The Novoye Vremya to-day prints an editorial on the "Anglo-Saxon rule in England and America at the expense of the Japanese victories," in which it says "the whole world with these exceptions realize that the Russian occupation of Manchuria would benefit civilization."

Chicago, March 2.—Eli Hokoi, first secretary of the Japanese legation at Washington, said the Japanese consul in Yokohama to Washington, Secretary Hokoi was one of the Japanese commissioners who drew up the treaty between China and Japan at Shanghai last fall.

On many points the Japanese government and the United States have agreed," said the diplomat. "They are united on the open door policy and the integrity of China. Japan and the United States would suffer most from the acquisition of parts of China by Russia. The Russian policy in Manchuria seems to be to exclude all other nations."

The impression among my people is that the government did not go to war quickly enough. They clamored for long before hostilities began. The people will do all in their power to support the government. Even the school children are trying to provide funds to carry on the war."

St. Petersburg, March 2.—A dispatch from Vladivostok, dated to-day, says that according to private reports there three Japanese detachments of 300 men each, recently landed at Ching-Chang, Korea, about 130 miles north of Wonsan with the supposed object of reaching the rail of the Tunghai river by Russia. The Russian makes request to the army to be much more anxious to go to the front than the townsmen. Many of the latter are presenting physicians' certificates of illness.

The bank balance on March 1st showed a decrease of only $4,000,000. The gold in hand amounted to $456,000,000.

CHINA'S NEUTRALITY.

Advices Received at Paris Are to Effect That Heretofore Will Be Observed.

Paris, March 3.—Credence is not given by the foreign office to the reports that China is on the eve of joining Japan in the war. The advices received here indicate that China proposes to observe her declaration of neutrality, and that the Chinese troops sent north have instructions to enforce the neutrality. It is understood that China has disavowed any collision between her troops and the Chinese outlaws, explaining that those who have joined the latter are deserters, and that in the undisputed state of the army it is impossible to prevent them from leaving.

RUSSIAN SQUADRONS.

Tokyo, March 2.—It has been learned that the Russians have occupied the telegraph offices at Anju and Tong Pyon, north of Ping Yang. They have imprisoned the district governor and have confiscated the official papers. The Russian force at Anju numbers only about forty men. The Russian force on the shore near Antung aggregate 2,000. No important engagement is expected south of the Yalu river, and it is believed the Russians will make it their main line of defence.

RUSSIAN FLEET'S MISSION.

Is to Prevent Landing of Mikado's Troops on Liao-Tung Peninsula.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—The naval organ says the chief strategic mission of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur is to prevent the Japanese from landing on the shores of the gulf of Liao-Tung, thus protecting the right flank and rear of the forces in Manchuria from the Japanese army.

It is evident, even from the meagre information regarding the Russian dispositions in Northern Korea, that the plan for checking the Japanese land advance is perfected, or that heavy reserves are being brought up the Yalu river. The Japanese are aware of this, and are now directed to prevent a blockade on the Siberian railroad. Twenty new sidings, each of 2,200 feet, are being erected. The heavy movement of rolling stock carrying reinforcements, war munitions and commissariat stores eastward, there is great danger that in bringing back the empty cars the whole line may be stopped. With the sidings now building, the authorities hope to be able to keep the line clear and to send eleven trains in each direction daily.

Sougin, Korea, on February 25th, reported by Major-General Pfing, chief of the Russian expedition, being the origin of the recent reports of a Japanese landing at Posset Bay, and is considered to be an attempt to outflank the Russian advance from the Yalu river.

TO COPE WITH TRAVEL.

Amtrages Busy Trying to Prevent Blockade of the Siberian Railway.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—Since the appearance of the Japanese fleet from before Port Arthur the Russian authorities have been awaiting anxiously the next move of the Japanese on sea. There is an inclination here to believe that the Japanese have been discouraged by the failure of their attacks and perhaps by losses they have not announced.

It is evident, even from the meagre information regarding the Russian dispositions in Northern Korea, that the plan for checking the Japanese land advance is perfected, or that heavy reserves are being brought up the Yalu river.

THE CAPTURE OF TWO THOUSAND RUSSIANS.

TO INCREASE NAVY.

VOLE PASSED BY IMPERIAL COMMONS—Mr. Balfour's Speech.

London, March 1.—In the course of a discussion of naval estimates in the House of Commons to-night, Premier Balfour, while admitting the magnitude of the estimates said the House should not only consider the amount, but should watch the general European and Asiatic situation which alone could justify what the country was asked to expend.

Continuing, Mr. Balfour said he was reluctant to mention the possibility of war. He did not think such a dreadful contingency was one which they at present had any reason to apprehend, but when talking of the navy they must always be talking of the possibility of war and he was forced when indicating the outlines of the reasons which compelled the government to ask for this sacrifice to indicate the possibilities which did not exist twenty-five years ago.

Without giving any indication that the presence of the gunboat had been observed, the strange ship proceeded on her way. The newspapers of the former had been thoroughly aroused, however, by this time and a shot was sent across her bow. This had the desired effect and investigation from Canadian four was engaged in a general wholesale commission business and is associated with Robt. W. Clarke, of this city. He is also a brother-in-law to W. S. Terry, of Terry & Marrott, the well known druggists of Fort Street.

Mr. Truffs stated that up to the time he left business had not been interfered with to any great extent in Japan or China. On account of the unsettled condition of affairs some of the finest brands of tea, those which had hitherto been sold in the West, had been refused by the Chinese and the wealthiest Russians, will now be available for export to America. Some of this tea would be brought to the front, and he promised that she would here would be surprised at its excellence. Biscuits factories in Japan were working night and day to supply the troops.

At Shanghai, when the war broke out a Russian gunboat was commanded to leave neutral waters within a certain space. The gunboat, however, did not depart and the Japanese, who were patrolling the river between Wusung and Han Kow, finally succeeded in capturing the Chinese ports the feeling is exceedingly bitter against the Russians. This has been intensified, Mr. Truffs claimed, by the action of Russia in taking the initiative in attacking commercial interests. The sinking of a Japanese steamer off the northwest coast of Japan did a great deal to arouse the indignation of the Japanese people, and the other comparatively small, the former proved an easy mark, and was captured. Mr. Truffs went on to Vancouver last night, where he will take up his residence.

At the present time the bill shall "take effect. During the debate it was intimated that the tariff on Philippine products might be reduced at the next session of congress. Mr. Patterson accepted the suggestion of a revision of the Philippine tariff as "a threat of another raid on sugar and tobacco," and said the friends of the tariff would not be deterred by any effort of that kind by all legitimate parliamentary tactics.

Mr. Lodge said in reply to Mr. Patterson that he never had undertaken to give assurance to Secretary Taft that the Philippine tariff reduction legislation could be secured next session, but added that if the House should send over such a measure he would support it.

Mr. Carmack contended that there had been no adequate returns for the $900,000,000 spent by the United States on the Philippines, which he pronounced the most worthless possession that ever rotted under a tropical sun. He predicted that in time the islands would have to be "paid for" not only in treasure, but in blood.

THE PHILIPPINE ISLAND.

United States Senator Does Not Place Much Value on Uncle Sam's Possessions.

Washington, March 2.—The bill for the regulation of Philippine shipping was again the principal matter for consideration by the Senate to-day. It was made the subject of a somewhat general discussion of the Philippine question, and was amended so as to defer for a year the time when the bill shall "take effect. During the debate it was intimated that the tariff on Philippine products might be reduced at the next session of congress.

Mr. Patterson accepted the suggestion of a revision of the Philippine tariff as "a threat of another raid on sugar and tobacco," and said the friends of the tariff would not be deterred by any effort of that kind by all legitimate parliamentary tactics.

Washington, Feb. 29.—President Roosevelt to-day sent to the Senate the following nominations: Chairman of the Isthmian canal commission, Rear-Admiral John G. Walker, United States navy, retired, district of Columbia.

Members of the Isthmian canal commission, Major-General Geo. W. Davis, United States army, retired, district of Columbia; Wm. Barclay Parsons, New York; Wm. H. Burr, New York; Benjamin Harrod, Louisiana; Carl Ewald Grunsky, California; J. E. Heckers, Michigan. It seems likely that the commission will go to Panama within a month, and that preliminary work will be begun immediately. A Montpelier dispatch says: "Late returns from the city and town elections indicate that five of the six cities and less than fifty out of 246 towns in the state voted in favor of licensing liquor saloons."

Against Remarks by President of the Arbitration Tribunal.

The Hague, Feb. 29.—The protest of the Japanese minister against the remarks made by Mr. Murray-Kelley, president of the arbitration tribunal and Russian minister of justice, in the speech which he made February 22nd after announcing the tribunal's decision in favor of the blockading powers against Venezuela, says: "The government of Japan, convinced that the permanent arbitration court cannot properly be used as a means of enforcing a power signature to the Hague convention of 1864, protests formally and seriously both in defence of its honor and dignity, and to prevent further use of this high court against the insupportable remarks of Mr. Murray-Kelley concerning the Japanese government."

The protest in the minutes of the court, and that it be given publicity equal to that given to the remarks which called it out.

GUIDES FOR TOURISTS.

C. P. R. May Establish a Training School—The Qualifications.

Discussing the outlook for a large tourist business in Canada next year, L. O. Armstrong, colonization agent for the C. P. R., says: "A difficulty which the railway encounters is in finding a sufficient number of trained guides. It looks as though this would become a department of the C. P. R., and a training school for guides is a necessity of the near future. Not only must the guide be a good conversant, but he must be able to cook and cater to the wants of people who demand luxuries. The Hudson's Bay Company have trained many such men, and many have become experts in this line through caring for the wants of railway men during periods of construction, but there are not enough of them."
