Colonel Dast, Georgia, who was a gallant officer in the Confederate army during the war of the rebellion, tells the following amusing story which has not herestore appeared in print: "I have always had," said he, "a great respect for the valor of the Massachusetts troops, and there was one regiment, particularly, the Ninth, which fought us like tigers. It so happened that during several engagements we were fortunate enough to surround one of their companies, and as we were shooting away, they seeing that unless they surrendered they were certain of annihilation, showed the wite flag. Unfortunately this was not seen by my entire command, and several shots were fired after I had given the order to cease. In the midst of this desultory firing there came a strong Hibernian voice from out of the bushes. 'How'd up.

HOW AN APPLICTING ANNUAL VISITOR WAS DRIVEN FROM A WEARY WOMAN.
Plain and simple mechanics are not liable to get out of order. Complicated watches, intended not quly to keep the time of day, but to mark the movements of the moon and stars, are certain to need frequent repairs. Husbands and fathers often fail to see that their wives and daughters are more delicately organized than themselves, requiring corresponding care when they are well and assistance when they are ill. Yet much better for woman's fine system is a trustworthy medicine, ready at all times for use, than a del of tinkering by semi-educated local practitioners.
