Chances are Good

Peritonitis Has Been Checked Through Prompt Treatment-St. John Nurse is in Charge of the Case.

According to Dr. Joseph Coffin, of Plaster Rock, his patient James Gorman, will recover from the effects of the bullet wound in the abdomen. The man is by no means out of danger, but the outlook is considerably better. The man has now been under treatment for four days. Peritonitis set in before the operation, but the physicians have succeeded in confining this to the lower part of the abdomen. Gorman is now under the care of Miss Lily Munroe of St. John. He has comfortable quarters in an engineering room at McDonald's camp.
