"Every One Thought I Had Consumption."

Pe-ru-na Saved Me."

"I THANK DR. HARTMAN FOR PE-RU-NA."

MRS. MOIE PARIZEAU.

"I hardly know how to thank you for the good Peru-na has done me. I suffered five years with pain in the stomach. About a year ago it became so bad I could hardly bear it. I coughed day and night and grew weaker and weaker. The pain extended through my body and I also had difficulty in breathing, which made me cough. Everyone thought I had consumption. My husband heard of Peru-na and bought five bottles. This treatment virtually cured me and now I recommend Peru-na to every one who is suffering. I thank Dr. Hartman for this excellent remedy."
—Mrs. Moie Parizeau.

NEGLECTED cold is generally the first cause of catarrh. Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh. By reason of their delicate structure, the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body. It would be wise therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible. Peru-na has been found the most reliable of all remedies for coughs, colds and catarrh, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble. It searches out every crevice, every duct of the body. It quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, thus relieving the congested mucous membrane. It exercises a healing and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes, no matter whether they are the more exposed membrane of the head and throat, or whether they line the remotest cells of the lungs. Mrs. Jaschob, 1881 Hicks St., Toledo, Ohio, writes: "When I wrote to you for advice, I had been sick for three years. I had trouble with my throat. Often I could not breathe through my nose. I also had pains in my chest and a cough. I took Peru-na according to directions and it has cured me."

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CATCHING COLD.

Grand Liberal Demonstration at Oak Bay

DR. PUGSLEY and Wm. F. TODD Deliver Ringing Speeches

Plans Ready for Public Works for Charlotte and Tenders will be Asked for at Once

Big Meeting at Milltown

The gathering at Oak Bay Wednesday in the interests of W. F. Todd the Liberal candidate for Charlotte was a rousing success and was attended by over 1000 people. Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Todd delivered strong and convincing speeches. Hearty cheers were given Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Todd, and the gathering then adjourned to enjoy the delights of a clam bake near the shore.

In Eaton's Hall, Milltown, in the evening the Milltown band played selections until the arrival of the speakers. The hall was quickly filled, and a large number stood throughout the meeting. Harrison McAlister, chairman of the Liberal executive, presided.

He would not occupy any time, he said, by a discussion of these matters, but in view of the present campaign of slander in which his opponents had been engaged he could not help applying to some of his opponents the words of the psalmist: "They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent, adder's poison is under their lips."

There was a great opportunity, Dr. Pugsley continued, for a representative of the county to do splendid work for his constituents. The county had a most important coast line, a number of fine harbors including St. Andrews, St. George and L'Etang, all of which, if properly developed, might attract very considerable shipping to the great advantage of the locality and the prestige and importance of the whole county.

Dr. Pugsley then went on to explain that it was largely because of the tariff policy and vigorous immigration policy resulting in a rapid increase in the population, that more had been accomplished for the progress and advancement of the Dominion than in all the years of Conservative rule. He emphasized the fact that these improvements had been had been paid out of current revenue and that, in addition, the government had expended the enormous sum of $121,015,115 in developing transportation.

These improvements were of such national character that they might properly have been paid out of capital. It was a marvelous fact, he said, that while during eighteen years the Conservatives were in power they increased the public debt no less than $118,000,000 the great public improvements carried out by the Liberal party had been paid almost entirely out of surplus current revenue. The public debt during the last twelve years had been increased only $19,463,457.

MINISTER GUVER. CONVINCING FIGURES. After a reference to the improvements in the conditions of labor under Liberal rule and to the increase in wages, Dr. Pugsley spoke of the better prices which farmers received for their product, which had resulted in their purchasing power being increased. He also took up the case of the postal department, contrasting the deficit of $700,000 under the Conservatives with the reduced rates for postage inaugurated by the Liberal government and the surplus of more than $1,000,000 which had been obtained.

MINISTER WAS IN GRAND FORM. Dr. Pugsley, who was in excellent voice, had every reason to feel gratified with the reception accorded him. On rising the audience cheered him to the echo. Dr. Pugsley, in his opening remarks, referred briefly to the attempts being made by many of the Conservative speakers to distract attention from the important issues of the campaign by making unjust attacks upon himself in regard to his course while a member of the provincial government.

He mentioned further that the rate of customs taxation had been reduced from $18.28 on each $100 worth of goods imported to $15.86, and quoted other figures to show the prosperity which had resulted from a wise and prudent administration. He went on to ridicule the cry of the Conservatives that it was time for a change, and asked if the people would be likely to trust Mr. Foster as finance minister again. The Conservative argument, he said, was based entirely on scandal, and he proceeded to refer briefly to the different scandalous crises, touching on the Saskatchewan Valley land deal, the Robb's irrigation scheme and others. He showed that the charges made were not worthy of the attention of the electorate in view of the satisfactory record of the government and its tariff policy and general energetic rule.

Dr. Pugsley then turned to discuss briefly the imputation of Mr. Bowser, attorney general of British Columbia, who had come all the way to New Brunswick for the purpose of seeking to frighten the people, that the subjects of Japan would come to Eastern Canada to take the place of white labor.

If there was one thing more than another which rebounded to the credit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier it was that when the Japanese riots took place in British Columbia and the government was called upon to denounce the treaty of alliance between Great Britain and Japan he stood up in his place in parliament and raised public clamor, stating that the manufacturer of Canada were too deeply interested and that development of trade and imperial interests were too deeply involved to warrant such a course without first making every reasonable effort to induce Japan to exercise her influence in preventing large immigration to British Columbia.

He pointed to the fact that Japan was rising power in the east and that Canada should not lightly take any steps which would break up the alliance between the two empires. The time might come when, owing to complications in Europe, the ships of Great Britain and Japan might be floating side by side in the harbors of British Columbia, sailing together for the defense of Canada. The government took the wise course of sending to Japan, Hon. Mr. Loucheux, who had effected a satisfactory arrangement.

STAS CHARLOTTE AGAIN IN LINE. In closing Dr. Pugsley expressed his conviction that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would receive an emphatic renewal of confidence on October 26. From reports from the various sections of Charlotte County he believed that they would send Mr. Todd to parliament and that the constituency would again range itself under the Liberal banner and declare adhesion to the policy which had made for national development, progress and prosperity.

The minister was cheered again and again as he resumed his seat. George M. Byron brought the meeting to a close in a fitting speech which was greatly to the liking of his audience. His witty sallies at the expense of the opposition kept his hearers in roars of laughter.

Cheers for the speakers and a selection by the band concluding with the national anthem closed one of the most successful political gatherings ever held in this town.
