PICTURE DRAMA IN REAL LIFE

White Girl From Chicago Runs Away to Become Bride of Indian Who Saved Her Life.

MADELINE SULLIVAN.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—No sooner had Mrs. Minnie Kirchberg Sullivan returned with her eighteen-year-old daughter, Madeline, than ZIP—and where was Madeline?

She was on a transcontinental train speeding back toward that same well-known woolly west to marry an Indian. It's a pretty romance, but of course Mrs. Sullivan doesn't want an Indian in the family, and the telegraph wires were kept busy between Chicago and Sheridan, Wyo. Madeline designed to reply to these urgent appeals, but her mother's ingenuity won out and the girl came back to Chicago plain Madeline.

As to the romance here is the gist of the whole thing, culled from the very heart of the affair: Fine summer morning; Madeline Sullivan, mounted upon her prancing charger, rides out over the plains. Horse cuts fancy caper, starts to run. See—the frightened girl is almost falling from her horse! Now who appears upon the scene of action? Ha, 'tis our "eto"—Big Iron Hawk! He clutches the falling girl. She sinks into his strong, manly arms. She opens her limpid eyes, and looks up into the face of the brave redskin. Well, from that time on, she just loved Big Iron Hawk. That was all there was to it.

BY ORDER OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAINT JOHN.

A Bill will be presented for enactment at the next session of the Legislature of the Province of New Brunswick entitled "An Act to authorize the Municipality of the City and County of Saint John to effect a loan for the purpose of enabling the Commissioners of the General Public Hospital in Saint John to redeem certain Debentures issued by them under 24 Victoria, Chapter 61, and 25 Victoria Chapter 42.

The nature of the Bill is local, and is set forth in the title thereof. The objects of the Bill are to relieve the said Municipality from making an assessment for $17,600.00, in the year 1912, to enable said Commissioners to redeem like sum of Debentures issued by said Commissioners then falling due, and in lieu thereof to give said Municipality power to issue Debentures for $18,000.00 with sinking fund, term 40 years, interest to be fixed by said Municipality, to redeem said Hospital Debentures.

Brilliant Crowd. Attend Wedding

LADY DECIES, THE BRIDE, AND LORD DECIES, THE BRIDE-GROOM, IN THE UNIFORM OF A BRITISH ARMY OFFICER.

New York, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Miss Helen Vivien Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jay Gould, was united in marriage this afternoon in the Protestant Episcopal church of St. Bartholomew, to John Graham Hope Boreford, fifth Baron Decies, a prominent officer of the British army and a member of a family that has been distinguished in England and Ireland for generations.

This is what Madeline said: "Much shame, heap pity, big bad horse kill pretty white girl." "This is what the bride of the red man, because he is big, brave and strong, and I love the prairie, the mountains and the hunt. I am going back to Wyoming as I will become Big Plenty Hawk's wife."

Through the vigilance of the mother Mrs. Minnie Sullivan, and the aid of the government agent of the reservation, Miss Sullivan was desired to enter the face of the red man, she had slipped out of Chicago and had gone to the side of her Indian sweetheart only to find that word of her coming had preceded her. The path of love quickly was strewn with obstacles, but these have not broken the determination of the girl, who declares she has been foredoomed ever since she was a little child that she was some day to be the mistress of a tepee.
