Women of Belgium Convicted By German Tribunals on Trumped Up Charges and Thrown Into Prison

A Reign of Terror - Wife EVELYN NESDIT THAW of Attorney General victim of Teuton spite, torn from her children and imprisoned.

New York, June 30.—Information received in New York relates the circum stances in which Mme. Carton de Wiart, wife of Mr. H. Carton de Wiart Stances in which Mme. Carton de Wiart, the Attorney General of Belgium, was recently sentenced to a term in a German prison, one of her offences being that she aided in the distribution of Cardinal Mercier's pastoral letter, which was suppressed by the German authorities in Belgium. The same in formation says that hundreds of Belgium women and children have been sent to pric on by the Germans on trumped up charges of "baving insulted German officers." The letter speaks of the German system in Belgium as a "reign of terror."

Mr. de Wiart was the head of the special Belgian Commission sent to this country soon after the beginning of the war to protest against the bar.

"One very stormy, rainy night in October, I had the great pleasure and great honor of being the guest of one of the very foremost Americans—Brand Whitlock, our minister in Belgium. When the dinner was over, and we were through talking, Mr. Whitlock told his guests that he was very sorry that he had no automobiles to take them home, as he was limited at that time by the Germans to perhaps thirty quarts of gasolene a day. Gasolene was scarce there. And he had three automobiles which he used altered automobiles which he used altered in the solution of the companies of the companie most entirely in the service of the Belmost entirely in the service of the Belgians and the Americans—the few who happened to be there—and very little for himself.
