MARGARET DICK, A LARGE FOUR-MASTER LAUNCHED SATURDAY

Took the Water Successfully At Hantsport—Will Be Commanded By Capt. C. E. Dagnell, Lately of the Dornfontein.

St. John was not the only place in the Maritime Provinces on Saturday that had a ship launch as one of the chief attractions, for Hantsport, N. S. had a holiday for the reason that the big four master, 1,050 tons, called the Margaret Dick, was successfully launched at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon, from the old Churchill shipyard and took her maiden dip into the quiet waters of the Avon River.

As early as seven o'clock in the morning the crowd from all over the adjacent countryside began to assemble, and many brought picnic baskets and enjoyed the beautiful day on the banks of the river. The local Red Cross Society were given use of one of the sheds in the yards and here sold lunches and light refreshments. By the time for the launching about three thousand people had gathered about the beautiful new vessel.

Mrs. Frederick Porter was the sponsor to break the bottle of wine on the bow of the ship as it started to glide down the ways.

The Margaret Dick was named after one of the owners in Toronto, and is a ship of most graceful lines. Her dimensions are: length over all, 224 feet; width, 38 ft. 6 in.; keel, 179 ft.; depth, 18 ft. 9 in. Her gross tonnage is approximately 1,050; her carrying capacity 1,800 tons. She is a yacht line model, designed by R. Huntley, of Parrsboro. Her mast is 95 ft. high with 50 ft. topmasts, all being beautiful specimens of timber. Most of the lumber of which she is constructed is Oregon fir brought from the Pacific coast. The size of the timbers in the keel is 16 by 16; the keel 16 by 16; the keelson 20 by 20, and the rudder keelson, 14 by 14.

Her builders were Messrs. Faughey and Porter, while Frederick Porter was the supervisor.

The commander of the new vessel will be Capt. C. E. Dagnell, who has been on three torpedoed vessels, and was in command of the four-master Dornfontein, which was destroyed by a German submarine a few weeks ago.

Rev. H. D. Martin, formerly curate at St. Paul's Valley church, has become rector of St. George's, Winnipeg. For the past eighteen months he has been in charge of the Church of the Holy Trinity of that city.
