TRANSFER OFFICE FOR C. P. R. STOCK NOW IN NEW YORK

This Fact, Brokers Say, Places it Beyond the Embargo Recently Placed on Investments by Gov't.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—(By Canadian Press).—Although the Canadian Pacific Railway is looked upon as a strictly Canadian institution, no Canadian Railway stock is to be transferred in any of the brokerage offices in Canada because of the recent embargo on foreign owned securities. This state of affairs is brought about, Ottawa brokers state, by the fact that the transfer office for C. P. R. stock was moved to New York during the war for the benefit of European customers and so far it has not been moved back to Canada, though it would be in due course. There is, also, the fact that the majority of the stock is held outside of Canada, and the road is, therefore, looked upon by brokers as a foreign owned corporation. The Canadian Bankers' Association, with headquarters in Toronto, is understood to have jurisdiction over this matter.

New York, Feb. 27.—Officials at the transfer office of the Canadian Pacific Railway in the Bank of Montreal here this afternoon declared that if no C. P. R. stock is being transferred in Canada it must be because the rate of discount on Canadian exchange prevents trading and not because of any restrictions placed upon dealing in the stock or lack of transfer facilities in Montreal. It was stated that the Montreal transfer office in the Royal Trust Company has been closed since the outbreak of the war, but that the bank is still open and there is nothing to interfere with trading in the stock between Canadians and nothing to interfere with trading by Canadians and people of the United States but adverse exchange conditions. It was stated that the bulk of the stock is held outside of Canada.

The transfer books show that there is more C. P. R. held in the name of Canadians than Americans, officials declare. There are transfer offices in Montreal, New York and London and none of them were closed or moved during the war, it was said.

BOXERS WHO HOLD TITLES IN PUGILISTIC CLASSES

Claiming titles has for years been the favorite sport of a large proportion of boxers in all parts of the world. In the cases of many of the boxers the mere fact that they had not the slightest right to the titles has not deterred them from emphasizing their championship declarations.

There are few boxers so devoid of imagination as to fail to flaunt a title of some sort and in some States there is a title holder of each class in every county.

So far as world championships are concerned, the action of the International Boxing Union in naming the incumbents in each class makes it impossible for any spurious claims to be made. In England and France title holders are officially named and it is out of the question for any counterfeiter to make any progress. In order to derive any glory from false claims they are compelled to come to America.

However, as soon as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board gets a firm grip on the situation in this country, the assumption of unearned titles will be come an unprofitable industry.

World and European champions and the national title holders of America, France and England are shown as follows:

Dominion Rifle Association Met

Annual Session Held in Ottawa Yesterday—Question on Age Limit Discussed—Officers Elected With Major General Wilson President.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—At the annual meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association held this morning, Lieutenant Col. S. J. Hogline, Toronto, strongly advocated the cancelling of a clause of the association whereby other ranks over the age of 45 may not be included on the list of members. He was of opinion that many men who had served overseas and had reached the disqualifying age would be an acquisition to the team. He was of opinion that they were not included in it.

The President, Major-General F. W. Wilson, stated this rule had been made with the idea of infusing new blood into the association. This rule did not apply to commissioned officers. The following at the time was that the men should not be included in the team who were too old for active service.

The question was referred to the committee who will report on the matter at the next meeting.

The officers elected (include):—Hon. Excellency Patron the Governor-General; Hon. President, Hon. Mr. Guthrie; President, Major-General Wilson, C. M. G., Montreal; Hon. Vice-president, General Sir Arthur Currie; Vice-presidents: Nova Scotia, Lieut.-Col. H. Flowers, Halifax, N. S.; New Brunswick, Major-General H. H. McLean, Prince Edward Island, Lieut. Col. W. P. Frowse, Charlottetown.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Investigation of Rear-Admiral Sims' charges that the United States navy failed to cooperate fully with the Allies during the war will begin March 9 with the admiral as the first witness. It was officially announced today. Secretary Daniels will also be a witness.
