HEROIC ACT

Three Lives Saved by Man Who Lived in St. John Last Year.

New York, Feb. 15—Michael McQuade, a young man from Bangor, Maine, made a brave rescue of a woman and her two children from a tenement house fire to-day at 1988 Second avenue. McQuade, who was employed in the building, started to appure all the people in it when the who was employed in the building, started to arouse all the people in it when the fire was discovered. He found Charles Bossi's printing shop locked, but knowing that the printer's family lived in the rear he broke in the glass door. He found Mrs. Bossi' hysterical from fright and with her night dress in flames. McQuade carried her to the open air, where she cried that her children would perish. McQuade took off his coat, wrapped it around his head and plunged into the flames and smoke. He returned in a few moments. His coat was not over his head this time, but around the two infants held in his arms. His face and hair had been exposed to the Saturday.

Edwin McPeake, while working in the Allan foundry, Carleton, yesterday morning, was caught in the machinery but escaped with slight injury.
