

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Dec. 17.—In spite of the storm on Saturday afternoon a large number of friends both here and from the city attended the formal opening of the new buildings in connection with Rothesay College and all speak of it as a most pleasant and interesting affair. A delicious afternoon tea was served from 3 to 5 o'clock. The boys go home on Saturday for the holidays.

Mr. Leslie H. Farn, of Aylesford (N. B.), was at the Kennedy House on Tuesday.

Mr. W. J. Shannon, mayor of Amapolis (N. S.), arrived on Friday and stayed at home with his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Henderson. Mr. Shannon will return to Amapolis early in the new year to take his official leave of the town.

Mr. R. E. Puddington went to the city on Friday to enjoy a birthday party of special friends which was given for her at the home of her niece, Mrs. William B. Allison.

Miss Christine Robinson, who has been visiting friends in St. John, came home on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and daughter left for Saturday's C. P. R. for Amherst. The Misses Balfour expect to spend Christmas at Kingsclair, guests of Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Giles, leaving Rothesay in a few days.

Nova Ale and Stout

The chief justice remarked that there was evidence both ways in regard to the liquor trade but thought that under no circumstances could the conviction of the magistrate be removed. Court unanimously confirmed the conviction.

In the case of the Anderson Furniture Company of Newcastle the court held that the payment of the note overdue in instalment of the loan to the town and interest thereon would satisfy the mortgage and it should be discharged.

Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 18.—The big seizure of liquor in the police station caused by the seizure of Scotch Act circles here. When the police arrived at the station they found living Swift, telephone operator, in charge and the search warrant issued to him. He refused to open the door of the freight shed, whereupon the police broke it open and contacted the fourteen barrels of bottled goods chiefly liquor and brandy, shipped by a Montreal house.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Dec. 16.—Hon. W. P. Jones visited Edmundston last week.

Miss Edith Weeks has returned to Charlottetown for a two months' visit in Charlottetown (P. E. I.).

Miss Addie Weeks has returned to Montreal for a two months' visit in Montreal.

Mr. W. G. Rose, of Princeton, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rose during the past week.

An extract from a Bethel (Me.) paper tells of a very pretty entertainment given there. The words and music were written and composed by Miss Bordey. The play was given in the school building by several years. Her friends here will be interested to hear of Miss Waterbury's spending the winter in Bethel (Me.) with friends.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Dec. 16.—Mr. Alexander Board, of Wakefield (Mass.), has arrived at his old Hampton home to spend Christmas.

Mr. William Purdy, Lakeville, has been on a visit to relatives and friends at Boston and vicinity during the past two or three weeks.

Mr. C. S. March, St. John, spent Friday evening and Saturday at Hampton Station.

Senior and junior classes for Bible study have been organized for Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. G. A. Ross in connection with the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McArthur.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Dec. 17.—The Misses Glee Club has chosen the following officers: I. T. Davis, of Amherst, vice-president; E. S. Story, of St. John's (Nfld.), secretary; P. T. Meek, of Sydney, director; I. H. Rand, of Moncton, manager.

Mr. H. Crane returned home from Port Elgin, where she was guest for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. G. G.

Mr. Harry Simpson, of Boston, was the guest over Sunday of his sister, Mrs. C. W. Ford, of Sackville.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 17.—George T. Bedburn went to Chelmsford on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

Miss Ella O'Donnell is visiting friends in Millville.

Nathan Miller, of Millerton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William O'Donnell here.

Mr. J. Collins and R. O'Leary, of Moncton, spent Sunday with friends in Newcastle.

THE BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 16.—The first Zag-Zag party was given here last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Whitney was the hostess to some thirty-five of her young friends. Much enthusiasm was shown in putting the puzzles together and at the close of the afternoon the prizes were sent to Miss Sadie Douglas and Miss Grace Budd, who were the first in making out the puzzles of their number.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Dec. 18.—The tea at Beechdyne, on Friday, was the most successful of the week. The whole house was thrown open and was most artistically decorated with printed and cut flowers. Miss Osborne wore a handsome gown of Dresden mauve silk with white Irish lace and white trimmings, and carried a large bouquet of pink carnations. In the tea room Mrs. T. G. Loggie and Mrs. A. R. Slipp presided at a beautifully laid table. The decorations were cut glass, carnations, asparagus ferns, and lighted with tapers. Miss Simpson presided at a corner table and served tea, Mrs. G. Loggie presided over the meeting, and Mrs. A. R. Slipp presided over the afternoon.

ROTHESAY

Mr. and Mrs. Benson will spend Christmas in Chatham with Lt.-Gov. and Mrs. Tweedie.

Now that tobogganing is to be revived, many are looking forward with bright anticipations to the numerous toboggan parties planned for the new slide which Mr. McArthur is erecting, and which is to be opened on Christmas.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Dec. 16.—Hon. W. P. Jones visited Edmundston last week.

Miss Edith Weeks has returned to Charlottetown for a two months' visit in Charlottetown (P. E. I.).

Miss Addie Weeks has returned to Montreal for a two months' visit in Montreal.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Dec. 16.—Mr. Alexander Board, of Wakefield (Mass.), has arrived at his old Hampton home to spend Christmas.

Mr. William Purdy, Lakeville, has been on a visit to relatives and friends at Boston and vicinity during the past two or three weeks.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Dec. 17.—The Misses Glee Club has chosen the following officers: I. T. Davis, of Amherst, vice-president; E. S. Story, of St. John's (Nfld.), secretary; P. T. Meek, of Sydney, director; I. H. Rand, of Moncton, manager.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 17.—George T. Bedburn went to Chelmsford on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

THE BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 16.—The first Zag-Zag party was given here last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Whitney was the hostess to some thirty-five of her young friends.

ROTHESAY

Mr. and Mrs. Benson will spend Christmas in Chatham with Lt.-Gov. and Mrs. Tweedie.

Nova Ale and Stout

The chief justice remarked that there was evidence both ways in regard to the liquor trade but thought that under no circumstances could the conviction of the magistrate be removed.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Dec. 16.—Hon. W. P. Jones visited Edmundston last week.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Dec. 16.—Mr. Alexander Board, of Wakefield (Mass.), has arrived at his old Hampton home to spend Christmas.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Dec. 17.—The Misses Glee Club has chosen the following officers: I. T. Davis, of Amherst, vice-president; E. S. Story, of St. John's (Nfld.), secretary; P. T. Meek, of Sydney, director; I. H. Rand, of Moncton, manager.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 17.—George T. Bedburn went to Chelmsford on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

THE BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 16.—The first Zag-Zag party was given here last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Whitney was the hostess to some thirty-five of her young friends.

ROTHESAY

Mr. and Mrs. Benson will spend Christmas in Chatham with Lt.-Gov. and Mrs. Tweedie.

Nova Ale and Stout

The chief justice remarked that there was evidence both ways in regard to the liquor trade but thought that under no circumstances could the conviction of the magistrate be removed.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Dec. 16.—Hon. W. P. Jones visited Edmundston last week.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Dec. 16.—Mr. Alexander Board, of Wakefield (Mass.), has arrived at his old Hampton home to spend Christmas.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Dec. 17.—The Misses Glee Club has chosen the following officers: I. T. Davis, of Amherst, vice-president; E. S. Story, of St. John's (Nfld.), secretary; P. T. Meek, of Sydney, director; I. H. Rand, of Moncton, manager.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 17.—George T. Bedburn went to Chelmsford on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

THE BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 16.—The first Zag-Zag party was given here last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Whitney was the hostess to some thirty-five of her young friends.

ROTHESAY

Mr. and Mrs. Benson will spend Christmas in Chatham with Lt.-Gov. and Mrs. Tweedie.

Nova Ale and Stout

The chief justice remarked that there was evidence both ways in regard to the liquor trade but thought that under no circumstances could the conviction of the magistrate be removed.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Dec. 16.—Hon. W. P. Jones visited Edmundston last week.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Dec. 16.—Mr. Alexander Board, of Wakefield (Mass.), has arrived at his old Hampton home to spend Christmas.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Dec. 17.—The Misses Glee Club has chosen the following officers: I. T. Davis, of Amherst, vice-president; E. S. Story, of St. John's (Nfld.), secretary; P. T. Meek, of Sydney, director; I. H. Rand, of Moncton, manager.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 17.—George T. Bedburn went to Chelmsford on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

THE BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 16.—The first Zag-Zag party was given here last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Whitney was the hostess to some thirty-five of her young friends.

ROTHESAY

Mr. and Mrs. Benson will spend Christmas in Chatham with Lt.-Gov. and Mrs. Tweedie.

Nova Ale and Stout

The chief justice remarked that there was evidence both ways in regard to the liquor trade but thought that under no circumstances could the conviction of the magistrate be removed.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Dec. 16.—Hon. W. P. Jones visited Edmundston last week.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Dec. 16.—Mr. Alexander Board, of Wakefield (Mass.), has arrived at his old Hampton home to spend Christmas.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Dec. 17.—The Misses Glee Club has chosen the following officers: I. T. Davis, of Amherst, vice-president; E. S. Story, of St. John's (Nfld.), secretary; P. T. Meek, of Sydney, director; I. H. Rand, of Moncton, manager.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 17.—George T. Bedburn went to Chelmsford on Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

THE BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 16.—The first Zag-Zag party was given here last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Whitney was the hostess to some thirty-five of her young friends.

Beaver Flour

A bar of flour—it's all the same. The same choice Ontario and Manitoba wheat—milled the same—blended in exactly the same proportions.

That's why Beaver Flour always gives the same results—always the best for bread and pastry.

At your Grocer

Beaver Flour is made from the best wheat raised in Ontario and Manitoba. It is milled in the same mill, and blended in the same proportions. That's why it gives the same results. Always the best for bread and pastry.

Beaver Flour is sold in all the large cities and towns of the Maritime Provinces. It is the flour of choice for all the home-makers.

Beaver Flour is made from the best wheat raised in Ontario and Manitoba. It is milled in the same mill, and blended in the same proportions. That's why it gives the same results. Always the best for bread and pastry.