These gentlemen were much interested in all they saw about the falls, and especially in the torrent of water shooting over St. Anthony's best apron. To obtain a better view, they ventured out upon the dam extending from the platform. About an inch of water runs over this dam, shoots down the apron with great velocity for the distance of 150 feet, until it strikes the timber bed running out level for twenty or thirty feet, and then dashes into a regular whirlpool that froths and foams among the rocks. Unfortunately for the tourists, the coffer dam was thickly coated with a green, slimy substance, making one of the most slippery foundations imaginable; and in less time than it takes to tell it their "feet were gone," and a couple of dark streaks were visible as they went down the slimy apron like a special telegram. Spectators feared they would be dashed upon the rocks and instantly killed, but luckily they managed to stop themselves on the timber bed before spoken of, and were promptly rescued. They were sorry-looking subjects, however, covered as they were with the deposit wiped up from the dam and apron, and were "wearing of the green" in the full est sense of the word. Their driver subsequently attempted to recover an estray hat from the dam, and lacking apronstrings, he, too, indulged in an unexpected for St. Paul, feeling that it was not good 50 Cattles Choice Smoking Tobacco, LONG 8's. 50 Cases MIXED PICKLES Received this week-for sale low.
