

For example, candidate No. 18 writing for B (Grade XI) on Algebra should endorse his paper as shown below:—

B. 18 ()	Algebra.
-----------	----------

7. The subject title, Grade and candidate's No. may be written within over the commencement of the paper also; but any sign or writing meant to indicate the candidate's name, station or personality may cause the rejection of the paper before it is even sent to the examiners.

8. Any attempt to give or receive information, even should it be unsuccessful, the presence of books or notes on the person of the candidate or within his reach, during examination, will constitute a violation of the examination rules and will justify the deputy examiner in rejecting the candidate's papers, and dismissing him from further attendance. No dishonest person is entitled to a Provincial Certificate or Teacher's License. And where dishonesty at examination is proven, Provincial certificates already obtained and licenses based on them shall be cancelled.

9. It is not necessary for candidates to copy papers on account of erasures or corrections made upon them. Neat corrections or cancellings of errors will allow a paper to stand as high in the estimation of the examiner as if half the time were lost in copying. Answers or results without the written work necessary to find them will be assumed to be only guesses and shall be valued accordingly.

10. Candidates are forbidden to ask questions of the deputy examiner with respect to typographical or other errors which may sometimes occur in examination questions. The examiner of the paper alone will be the judge of the candidate's ability as indicated by his treatment of the error. No candidate will suffer for a blunder not his own.

11. Candidates desiring to speak with the deputy examiner will hold up the hand. Communication between candidates at examination, even to the extent of passing a ruler or making signs, is a violation of the rules. Any such necessary communication can be held through the deputy examiner only.

12. Candidates should remember that the deputy examiner cannot overlook a suspected violation of the rules of examination without violation of his oath of office. No consideration of personal friendship or pity can therefore be expected to shield the guilty or negligent.

13. All candidates will be required to fill in and sign the following certificate at the conclusion of the examination:—

CERTIFICATE.
