

gentlemen in charge of ordinary stations, it has been the indirect means of calling forth.

The library in connection with this office has received numerous valuable additions, during the year, which have been individually acknowledged. It is proposed to publish a complete list of the works contained in the library, in the next report.

The above is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES CARPMAEL,
Acting Superintendent of Meteorological Office.