

Meetings of the Council, how called.

12. It shall be competent to the said Council to hold meetings from time to time, and to adjourn the same when necessary, and at the said meetings to transact such business as may by this Act, or the By-laws of the Corporation, be assigned to them; and such meetings of the Council shall be convened by the Secretary at the instance of the President; or upon the request of any two members of the Council, and the said Council shall, in addition to the powers hereby expressly conferred on them, have such powers as shall be assigned to them by any By-law of the Corporation, except only the power of enacting or altering any By-law or admitting any member, which shall be done in the manner provided for by this Act and no other; and any five or more members of the Council, lawfully met, and of whom the President or Vice-President shall be one, or in case of their absence, any five or more members lawfully met shall be a quorum, and any majority of such quorum may do all things within the powers of the Council; and at all meetings of the said Council, and at all general meetings of the Corporation the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, or, if both be absent, any member of the Council then present who may be chosen for the occasion, shall preside, and shall in all cases of equality of votes upon any division have a casting vote.

Quorum.

President and casting vote.

Council to frame By-laws and submit them to Corporation.

13. It shall be the duty of the said Council, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, to frame such By-laws, rules and regulations as shall seem to the Council best adapted to promote the welfare of the said Corporation and the purposes of this Act, and to submit the same for adoption at a general meeting of the said Corporation called for that purpose in the manner hereinbefore provided.

Meetings of the Council to be open.

Minutes to be kept.

14. The meetings of the members of the Council shall be open to all members of the said Corporation who may attend at the same, but who shall take no part in any proceedings thereat; and Minutes of the proceedings at all meetings, whether of the said Council or the said Corporation, shall be entered in books to be kept for that purpose by the Secretary of the said Corporation; and the entry thereof shall be signed by the President of the said Council, or such other person who at the time shall preside over any such meeting; and all such books shall be open at all reasonable hours to any member of the said Corporation, free from any charge.

Board of Examiners of Inspectors of articles subject to inspection.

15. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Council of the said Corporation to appoint five persons to constitute a Board of Examiners for the City of Kingston or County of Frontenac, for the year commencing on the first day of September then next, and ending on the thirty-first day of August following, to examine applicants for the office of Inspector of flour and meal, or any other article subject to inspection, and for the said Council to do all such other Acts, matters and things connected with the inspection of flour and meal, or any other article, and have a full power and be subject to the same conditions as those conferred upon and required of the Councils of the Boards of Trade by virtue of the Act, chapter forty-seven of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, and the said Examiners and Inspectors shall also be subject to all the conditions, requirements, oaths, matters and things (touching their offices) set forth in the said Act.
