

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons who shall or may have obtained a Licence or Licences in the manner herein before-mentioned, to proceed to sell or retail Spirituous Liquors, or to keep a House or Houses of Public Entertainment, until he, she or they shall have exhibited such Licence or Licences to the person or persons who shall have presided at the meeting herein before directed to be held, which person or persons shall, on the first Sunday thereafter, cause such Licence to be read publicly at the Church door of the Parish, Seigniority or Township for which the same shall be granted immediately after Divine Service in the morning, or where there shall be no such Church, then at the place of the most public resort in the Township or Seigniority for which such Licence shall be granted, and shall affix or cause to be affixed on the door of such Church, or where there is no Church, at the place of the most public resort, a notification that the person to whom such Licence hath been granted, hath been and is duly qualified and authorized to sell Spirituous Liquors, or to keep a House of Public Entertainment in such Parish, and every such person or persons holding such Licence, who shall sell Spirituous Liquors, or keep a House of Public Entertainment, before he, she or they shall have exhibited such Licence in the manner herein before-provided, shall be considered and deemed to be liable to the penalty or penalties which are by Law imposed on persons selling Spirituous Liquors without Licence.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that whenever any person holding a Licence to keep a House of Public Entertainment, and to retail Spirituous Liquors during Divine Service on Sundays or Holidays, (except for the use of the sick or travellers,) or of suffering any Seamen, Soldiers, Apprentices, Servants or Minors, to remain tippling in his or her house after seven o'clock in the evening, in winter, or after nine in the evening, in summer, or of having committed any felony, the Court, or such Justice of the Court of King's Bench, or the Provincial Judge, or the Justice of the Peace before whom such person shall have been convicted, shall, if he or they see fit, adjudge and order that the Licence thus held by such person so convicted, shall be forfeited, and that he or she shall no longer keep a House of Public Entertainment, or retail Spirituous Liquors in virtue thereof, and that he or she shall be incapable of having or holding any Licence for such purposes thereafter.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that any person or persons, (excepting such persons as may have obtained Licences to keep Houses or other places of Public Entertainment,) who shall sell or retail Ale or other Malt Liquor or Cider to drink in his or their House, Out-House, Yard, Garden, Orchard or other place, shall be considered and deemed to be liable to the penalty or penalties which are by Law imposed on persons keeping Houses or other place of Public Entertainment without a Licence, and such penalty or penalties shall be sued for, recovered, distributed and applied in the manner and form provided by Law.
