RILEY WAS THERE

By Damon Bunyon

THE WOUNDED NET TENDER

It was in the company of the great philosophical mind, William (What'll I tell Joan?) Glass, that this reporter took a seat last week on one of those speedy (?) chariots comprising the local bus system and set out to view the premiere performance of Peter Kelly's hockey team.

On arrival at York Arena (Madison Square Garden without artificial ice) we had the good fortune of meeting PUNCHY (I bust me collarbone!) Walker and getting a few pre-season forecasts. This wounded net tender informed us that before the season is over, UNB will have a better team than last year's starry aggregation.

While discussing the pros and cons of our puck chasers, we suddenly found ourselves enveloped in darkness, caused by (according to that demon journalist D. Jackson "Scoop" Riley of the Big Town Illustrated Cleaner) a burnt out transformer. The next hour was spent cursing the fact we hadn't brought along some creatures of the female species and during which time this one became almost certain he had found the back of his lap.

Finally, the lights came on and the game was played, UNB placing a strain on weak hearts by waiting until the last 15 seconds to edge the Panthers 5-4. The score was no indication of the play, however, as Peter's boys carried the puck most of the evening. The display put on by the Kelly men that night proved PUNCHY wasn't talking through his battered 'ol cap. The only performance not commendable took place in the UNB nets were, I was informed, "Bim" McIntyre was having an "off night". Why was this lad working on one of his "off nights"?

MR. CLARK, YOU'RE A ---

On Friday night of that week the deadly rivalry set up last year between UNB and the Dairy Kings was resumed. I attended this game with some of the better people in town among whom was that scoring fool of the Intramural Blood and Guts Hockey League, Robert (Long live the doorman at the Borscht Pot!) Duke. It was with complete disregard to personal safety and unequalled courage that we seated ourselves in a Devon cheering section, hoping to get some colorful material for that slow moving college journal, the Brunswickian (The Friday paper that never comes out on Friday).

Our old enemy, Knuckah (with the accent on the "ah") Irvine took to the ice and to the strain of "That Silver Haired Daddy 'O Mine" played his usual type of game. Mr. Irvine has been spoken of by many as "the hockey player with the million dollar legs and the ten cent head." This reporter would not give a lead slug for his whole carcass.

As usual, I was in complete disagreement with referee "Shorty" (The only thing he is short on is eyesight!) Clark, and his complete disregard of certain misdemeanors led me to shout, "VIPER!" at him. The Devon fans were about to annihilate me until I explained that this was just an abbreviation for Very Important Person Enforcing Rules. A short time later I forgot myself again momentarily and in the heat of the action called Mr. Clark a CUR. One of the enemy's female fans (they're the deadliest type) was busily choking me to death when I managed to gasp that a CUR was a Courageous Upholder of the Rules. She looked at me with big innocent blue eyes, snapped her bubble gum under my nose and made a noise with tongue between lips that is delicately referred to by some as a "raspberry".

Meanwhile, on the ice, the Hillmen carried the play for two and a half periods only to fall before a Dairy King onslaught in the last ten minutes and lose 9-7. Tom "Mister Nine" Whittingham, suffering from that dread disease "first night jitters", looked like Bill Duran in the closing minutes of the second period but in the third looked more like himself on a bad night. Once again, UNB's vulnerable spot appeared in the form of a net tender. We are looking forward to the time when Tom and "Bim" will help us to make a complete about face and we will run out of adjectives in praise of their work.

BOUQUETS TO ALL CONCERNED

Here's orchids to coach Ted Owens and all members of the Senior Varsity Basketball Team for their great performance against the Saint Johns last Saturday night. We toast you and look forward to a new era of basketball supremacy by UNB. We also wish to congratulate the spectators for your fine support. It was the first time in two years we had heard that much noise at a Senior Varsity game. Let's have more of it!

Flying Start For Co-Eds

With their second victory of the season, the Ladies Varsity Basketball team have made a flying start towards their immediate goal, the NB championship. The varied turnout in October was approximately twenty five players. Gradually that number was depleted until there were twelve co-eds left. Four evenings a week the gym rats hang on the door to inspect the female talent. The Freshman think they're "pretty hot stuff!" the sophomores they're "pretty stuff; the Juniors— stuff" and the seniors are married.

The chief basketweavers of the co-ed cage team are Faith Baxter a star of last year, Joene Moors and Janette Webb the Fredericton High Favourites. Another sharp forward combination is Frances Bearsto, a veteran of the basketball floor; Peggy Stewart a sharp shooting freshie Soph. and Eleanor Jones the steady type from Milltown.

The unsung heroines of the play, the guards have executed some neat intercepting and in the game Saturday held the smooth McAdam team until the siren. Those occupying the defensive position are... the captain and livewire of the team, Eleanor Wylie; Maxine Holder, an import from the Saint John High champ team, Frances Graham the versatile guard forward Meredith Spicer, who has a way with the ball, Mary Needler, a promising Freshette and Elizabeth Scribner an eager Frederictonite. This completes our neat little dozen. Then come a note on their colossal coach Ted Owens, who has done a stellar job. The manager Mary Brewer and her faithful assistant Audrey Baird have kept our Co-eds well orange fed and clothed (?).

Saint Joseph's University seem to have a strong hockey line-up this year. They held the Amherst Ramblers to a 5-5 tie last week in a Central Hockey league game.

The Amherst squad had previously walloped UNB's traditional rivals, Mount Allison 14-4.

Dr. Trueman

Dr. A. W. Trueman, president of the University of New Brunswick, left today for Montreal. The purpose of his visit is two-fold: He will attend an important committee meeting of the National Conference of Canadian Universities; he will also attend a function of the Montreal UNB Club. Dr. Trueman is expected back in Fredericton early next week.

DECISIVE VICTORY FOR CAN. FOOTBALL & RINK

The student body turned out in overwhelming numbers on Tuesday to record a decisive victory for Canadian Football and a proposed UNB Rink. Well over 850 students recorded a 92% vote for a rink as opposed to 8% for a library. Canadian Football did equally as well when 83% of the votes cast went for it. 870 students representing 72% of the student body voted in the plebiscite. This is close to an all time high for plebiscites and elections at UNB.

The large support for the proposed extension to the library from the Arts and Science Faculty never really materialized when vote-counters chalked up 39 votes for a library against 189 for a rink in this group. The Arts and Science students soon discounted another old argument—that Maritime students did not want Canadian Football but preferred English Rugby. This old argument went by the board when it was proved that 82% of the students in this faculty (where there are few Upper Canadians) voted overwhelmingly to support the introduction of the new game.

Greatest opposition to the Library came from the Foresters and Engineers who chalked up a 96% preference for the Rink.

Interesting to note were the number of so-called reactionaries in the student body who voted a straight ticket—for Library and English Rugby.
