

materials and workmen sufficient to finish the said work after 24 hours' notice in writing and the expense of the same shall be deducted from the amount of said contract.

Sixth:— Should any dispute arise "respecting the true construction of the meaning of the drawings and specifications or respecting the true value of any extra work the same shall be decided by a duly qualified representative of the party of the first part whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Seventh:— No work shall be considered as an extra unless a separate estimate in writing shall have been submitted to the Indian Agent in charge of the Reserve and his signature obtained thereto.

Eighth:— The party of the first part or his successors shall not in any manner be accountable or answerable for any loss or damage that shall happen to the said works or any part thereof respectively or for any of the materials or other things used or employed in finishing and completing the same.

Ninth:— Should the contractor fail to finish the work at the time agreed upon he shall pay to the party of the first part or his successors the sum of Ten Dollars per day for each and every day thereafter the said works "shall remain unfinished as for "liquidated damages.

Tenth:— The certificates obtained from time to time and signed by the "representative