

The Hunting Grounds of the Walpole & Chenoil Searle Indians are the unsettled parts of the Township ofombra and Doon, and in the Marshes of the Islands. The Channels of the River at this place abound with fish -

The Hunting Grounds of the Indians, settled at the Mouth of the River aux Sables, are the unsettled parts of the Canada Company Tract -

(2) - The Amherstburgh Indians - Anti P. 2
Part 19

The Huron Reserve is situated on the East Bank of the River Detroit in the Township of Malder in the Western District. Point Pele is in the Township of Mersea about 35 Miles below Amherstburgh -

The Amherstburgh Indian generally hunt in the Forests of the State of Michigan, and they take great quantities of Fish in the River Detroit -

(B) The Chippewa, Munsee, and Moravian of the River Thames.

The Chippewa of the River Thames possess a Reserve in the Township

Anti 2
Part 19