Chas. A. Gauvreau, Esq., M.P.,
House of Commons,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Gauvreau:

I thank you very much indeed for sending me this morning your book. Let me take the opportunity of congratulating you on having compiled a real piece of literature. I know how difficult it is for a public man to get time to devote himself to writing, and on this account have the higher appreciation of your success.

I shall read this book with pleasure and will later write you briefly my impressions.

Yours very truly,
