

ber shall still be entitled to this privilege. These Members shall be known as Privileged Members. Privileged Members may not vote or propose or second a nomination. Privileged Members having once resigned are not eligible for re-election as Privileged Members;

Clause "B." Privileged Members, upon marriage, may retain their membership in the Club by paying current entrance fee.

13. Clause "A." Any lady visiting Vancouver may be introduced by a Member for fourteen consecutive days, after which, by payment of $3.00 per month, she may be a Temporary Member for the following two and a half months. Temporary Members may not bring non-members into the Club;

Clause "B." The Member introducing said Temporary Member will be held responsible for any indebtedness she may incur in the Club.

14. A Member who has been a Country Member for two years may become a full City Member, upon coming to the City to reside, but any one who has been a Country Member for less than two years, upon coming to the City to reside, must go on the regular waiting list, when she shall become a Member when her turn comes, without election or payment of entrance fee.

15. Members must send in complaints in writing either to the Convener of the House Committee or the Secretary, and any suggestions are also requested to be handed to the Secretary in writing.

16. All accounts must be audited by the Executive Committee and paid by cheque signed by the President, or, in her absence, by either of the Vice-Presidents, and countersigned by the Honorary Treasurer, or, in her absence, by a Member of the Executive duly appointed by that body.
