

manner whatsoever, receive any profit, salary, or emolument from the funds of the Club ; nor shall any member give any money or gratuity to any of the servants of the establishment when engaged by the Committee, upon any pretence whatsoever. It being understood that this rule is not intended to preclude any member of the Club from selling property or goods, or stocks, or other money securities, to the Club, or buying any of the same from the Club.

XXIII.—No member shall take away from the Club, upon any pretence whatsoever, any newspaper, pamphlet, book, map or other article, the property of the Institution.

XXIV.—No servant of the Club shall be sent out of the house upon any errands, on any pretence whatever.

XXV.—Any cause of complaint that may arise is to be written and signed by the member so complaining, on his bill ; which complaint must be specially noticed by the Committee on settling the weekly accounts ; and any inattention or improper conduct of a servant is to be stated by letter, under the signature of such member, which, being put in the Secretary's box, must be laid before the Committee at their next weekly meeting.

XXVI.—All members are to pay their bills for every expense they incur in the Club before they leave the house.

XXVII.—No round game shall on any account be
