

- will have to make
damages.
misfortunes were
for them.
me up to-mor-
re o'clock.
as in a brown
ach, it might be
dden he burst
ng.
ged that busi-
a high hand.
made us pay
know which
s is no longer
s a general
ty.
world good
ecessary and
vas so great
r had ran
ardly keep
ce.
r has been
ain.
- 8 Il voudra être payé en
espèces sonnantes.
9 Le sort en est jeté !
10 Quelques instants après
mon départ il rendit le dernier soupir.
11 Il ne peut pas dire deux
mots de suite.
12 Il les frappa d'estoc et
de taille.
13 Ils faisaient un tapage
infernale.
14 La question revint sur
le tapis.
15 Il fut précipité dans l'abîme la tête la première.
16 J'ai du travail par des-
sus la tête.
17 Faites ce travail à tête
reposée.
18 Les bras m'en sont
tombés.
19 Quel boute-en-train
que votre frère !
20 Il allait son petit train,
sans jamais se presser.
21 Il fut condamné à cinq
ans de travaux forcés.
22 Tout semble aller de
travers chez nous.
- 258 He will want to be
paid in hard cash.
259 The die is cast !
260 A few moments after I
left he breathed his last.
261 He can't put two words
together.
262 He cut and thrust at
them.
263 They were kicking up
an infernal row.
264 The question was again
brought into discussion.
265 He was hurled head-
long into the abyss 266 I am over head and
ears in work
267 Do that work leisurely.
268 I was thunderstruck.
269 What a jolly fellow
your brother is 270 He went jogging on,
without ever hurrying.
271 He was condemned to
five years' penal servitude
272 Everything seems out
of joint at home.